

Canadians in the NCAA - Week 5

Week 5 in the NCAA

Better weather and closer games

Week 5 in the NCAA saw another exciting series of lacrosse games characterized by close scores and better weather. Several Canadians had big weeks on the score sheet including Dickson, McBride, Matthews, Moore, Matisz, Schuss, Neufeld, Genik, the Farmer's, Morlock, Bowman, Midwinter and McIntosh. In this week's report we add in statistical tables for the first time which rank the leading Canadian scorers in Divisions I, II and III respectively by points per game (PPG). Finally, I have included the just announced roster for Team Canada which was released on Monday morning in Toronto. Here's my recap of the week that was in the NCAA from a Canadian perspective.

Division I - Dickson and McBride continue to lead the band!

Curtis Dickson (Port Coquitlam) continues to score in amazingly large numbers, with 8 goals and 2 assists in a 16-9 win over Albany. Dickson has started the season with 24 goals in 5 games with the Blue Hen single season record established in 1951 by Don Swan who scored 65 – we will let you know if Dickson comes close to breaking that record as the season progresses. The Stony Brook Seawolves had a big 14-11 win over Towson this past weekend and the Canadian contingent was once again prominent with Jordan McBride (New Westminster) scoring 6 times and adding an assist while Keith Crowley (New Westminster) had 3 goals and 2 assists. Detroit lost to Quinnipiac on Sunday but Joel Matthews (St Catherines) continues to lead all Canadian rookie scorers and managed to score 3 goals and 3 assists in the defeat. The Robert Morris offense has yet to run out of steam with the evidence being a 19-8 win over VMI this past weekend. Kiel Matisz (Stoney Creek) scored 5 goals for the Colonials, while Trevor Moore (Port Coquitlam) added a goal and 4 assists and Corby Tao-Brambleby (Coquitlam) added a hat trick in the win. Jacksonville continues to impress as a nascent Division I lacrosse program, earning a 14-7 win over Mount St Mary's. Jacksonville is now 3-3 with two of the losses being by a goal. In the win over Mount St Mary's Cameron Mann (Hamilton) scored 3 goals and added 2 assists while Ryan Serville (Toronto) chipped in 2 goals and an assist. Ohio State beat Penn State 11-10 and rookie Logun Schuss (Delta), who is third in rookie scoring amongst the Canadians was strong once again, contributing a goal and 4 assists in the win. Aiden Genik (Toronto Beaches) had a good week scoring 4 goals and an assist in leading Hartford to its first win of the season. Denver split home games over the weekend with Can Flint (Orangeville) scoring a hat trick in Sunday's win over Lehigh. Siena's Bryan Neufeld (Virgil) had a big game against Albany last week in a 13-12 win by contributing 4 goals and an assist. Yale beat Presbyterian 14-5 with two Canadian freshmen, Yale's Deron Dempster (Orangeville) and Presbyterians' Tyler Melnyk (Calgary) each scoring a pair. The top 25 Canadian scorers in Division I as of the 6th of March are as follows.

Games upcoming – Two great games worth seeing in upstate NY

This past weekend I had the pleasure of watching Cornell beat Army in overtime – pleasurable in part because I am a retired naval officer. Looking ahead, there are a number of exciting games worth watching if you live close to the Canada/US border. The two highest profile games include Virginia at Cornell and Georgetown at Syracuse, both on Saturday afternoon. Molloy plays at Mercyhurst on Saturday as well if you are interested in taking in a game in Erie, Pennsylvania which is about an hour from Buffalo. In NLL action Buffalo plays at Toronto this Friday night at the ACC and it should be a great game.

Final comments – Team Canada announced

Team Canada announced its final roster today and there were few surprises. This year's Team Canada features two active NCAA players, namely Ryan McClelland and Evan Kirk who are currently playing in the NCAA for Colgate and Hobart respectively. Alex Jones, who hails from St Albert and plays at Dominican College in NY will be playing at the worlds for the Dutch National Team. The just announced Team Canada is as follows.
