

PLAYER'S CODE OF CONDUCT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FORM

McFedridge Hockey players are expected to be good citizens and represent themselves, their families and the organization in a positive manner.

1. Be respectful and courteous to coaches, teammates, the other team, officials, parents and fans;
2. Do not argue with coaches or officials;
3. Do not use abusive or vulgar language;
4. Do not taunt other players, coaches or officials;
5. Never deliberately try to injure another player;
6. Do not fight or incite others to do so;
7. Be respectful of the property of others
8. If I see a person violating the Code of Conduct, I will try to tell them to stop their behavior immediately. If the situation involves a physical conflict or I cannot resolve the situation immediately, I will refer the problem to my Coach, the Team Manager, a parent or a MHA Official.

I have read, understand and agree to comply with the Code of conduct of the MHA, including the guidelines summarized above both on and off the ice and at any team functions. I understand my responsibilities and what may happen to me if I do not behave properly. I understand that if I do not follow the guidelines listed above, I may be suspended from the team or expelled from the program for the rest of the season.
