

Become a Billet Family

The Phoenix Knights Jr. A hockey team welcomes players from around the world to become part of its outstanding hockey program. Our out-of-town players want to experience their time away from their families in a caring environment, and to have a home away from home.

Having a hockey player in your home takes time, patience, and a willingness to share. There are lots of differences - cultural and personal - and both are part of the rewarding experience of welcoming someone new into your home. In many cases, billet families make new friends for life.

Frequently asked questions about housing a player

Q. What makes a great billet?

A. A sensitive and patient family! It can be overwhelming for a player to be so far away from home. A thoughtful billet family appreciates that each player is unique and that communication and mutual understanding take effort.

Q. May a family host more than one player?

A. Yes. Two (or more) players can share transportation expenses, and often times provide camaraderie for one another. All of our players fill out a detailed application and must comply with specific guidelines for behavior and academic performance (if applicable).

Q. What am I expected to provide?

A. We ask that you provide:

- A separate room and closet for a player, or shared room and bath if hosting more than one player.
- Desk and chair, Internet access, and furnishings as you might find in a dorm room
- Nutritious meals. (Billets are not responsible for meal expenses when players are traveling.)
- A patient, supportive, and friendly home atmosphere
- The same guidance and attention you would want for your children.

What you receive in return:

- A firsthand understanding of being a hockey fan.
- A new perspective on hockey as seen through the eyes of your Jr. A player.
- The opportunity to make a difference to a young player and help him toward his dreams.
- A negotiable monthly stipend of $0 ~$300.00 for each player depending on family situation.
- Orientation and support from the Phoenix Knights and other experienced billets
- Invitation to Phoenix Knights home games.

Billets can share their lifestyle in a positive and mutually rewarding way while providing a safe, secure, and welcome home.

Even the most self-assured players appreciate good quality time with their billet family. Is everyone in your household ready to accept some one new into your home? If willing, this experience can be a great choice.
