

ERIK STOFFELSHAUS TO LEAVE WEST OTTAWA SOCCER CLUB

Ottawa, ON March 17th: The West Ottawa Soccer Club (“WOSC) has announced that, by mutual agreement, Erik Stoffelshaus will be leaving his position as Technical Director of the Club effective immediately.

“We appreciate Erik’s efforts during his short time with us,” stated WOSC President Brian Mason. “We wish him all the best in his future endeavours in soccer.”

“I would like to thank all members of the WOSC family for their support over the last four months and wish the Club all the best going forward,” added Erik Stoffelshaus.

The Board of Directors and CEO will take this opportunity to conduct an assessment of the Club’s technical leadership needs in the near future.

About the West Ottawa Soccer Club

The West Ottawa Soccer Club (WOSC) was founded in 2010 and is now the largest soccer club in the Ottawa area, and the second largest club in the country. The Club is the result of a merger of a number of soccer clubs in the west end of Ottawa and continues to grow.

WOSC delivers a full suite of soccer programs from very young children to adults. A variety of league and player development programs are offered to meet all levels of ability and interest. The Club is a leader in Long Term Player Development.

The Club is professionally managed with a growing full time and part-time staff. WOSC is governed by a volunteer board of directors and works with an extensive network of volunteers to support the delivery of its programs.
