Andover Girls Traveling Basketball Association

Andover Player Responsibilities and Code of Conduct:

- I understand that it is a privilege to play Andover Girls Traveling Basketball and with this privilege comes some responsibilities.
- Do your best in school! That is your first priority and most important responsibility.
- Participate to the best of your ability. Always strive to improve yourself and your team.
- Be on time and ready to play for practices and games.
- Make every effort to attend all practices and games and in the event that you will miss a practice or a game, you will let the coach know as soon as possible.
- Be positive both on and off the court and do not criticize your fellow teammates or opponents.
- Speak and act in a respectful way to your coaches, your teammates, your parents, your opponents and the referees. This includes ALL communication, including using all forms of social media.
- Demonstrate respect for public property and equipment and represent the Andover community while at tournaments and games.
- Do not question or speak inappropriately to the referees. Only a coach may question a referee's call.
- Do not smoke, drink alcohol, or use illegal drugs while representing this team.
- Be a team player and have fun!!

All infractions that are reported to the board either directly or indirectly will be investigated

Violations of the player code of conduct may result in disciplinary action. Coaches will have the authority to take disciplinary action up to a one game suspension and the parent will be notified of the infraction. The AGTBA board will review disciplinary action beyond one game.

I have read and agree to the Parent / Player's Codes of Conduct. My signature indicates my willingness to positively participate to the best of my ability while abiding by the highest level of sportsmanship and conduct in order to encourage a positive and enjoyable experience for all. I understand the consequences if I fail to comply.
