Tanner Craswell and Mitch MacLean Memorial Bursary

Application Deadline: 22 June 2020.

Award Type: A bursary valued at $500.

Application Type: Application form.

Applicant Status: A student/player who has been a registered member of Baseball PEI for a minimum of three years.

Description: Awarded to a student/player intending to pursue his baseball career along with his education at a baseball academy/institution outside of the province of Prince Edward Island. This player, who in the judgment of the Baseball PEI Bursary Committee, best demonstrates characteristics of leadership, commitment to the sport of baseball and has a strong value for education.

Background: This bursary has been created by Baseball PEI to honour the lives of Tanner Craswell and Mitch MacLean and their contribution to the sport of baseball in the Province of PEI. As well the intent of this bursary is to assist a deserving Island baseball player who demonstrates the love and enjoyment for the game, self-motivated energy and willingness to do the extras, influence his teammates in a positive way and compete with a never-ending desire to win.

Tanner and Mitch were outstanding players with different strengths but a similar passion for baseball. Their teammates look at them for leadership on and off the playing field.

Purpose of the Bursary Plans: This bursary has been created to encourage PEI baseball players to pursue their careers while combining baseball and education. The winner of the award will be announced 5 July 2019.

Criteria for Bursary:

- Any PEI resident who has been registered with Baseball PEI for a minimum of three years.
- Must be intending to pursue a baseball career at an out of province academy/institution with a focus on player development.
- Must have displayed diligence in player development throughout their minor baseball years.
- Must have demonstrated leadership qualities with his provincial rep team(s).
- Must be of good character and moral standing.
