CSS Sponsorship & Advertising

We invite you to advertise your business through CSS using our multiple advertising opportunities. We have six tournaments that hosts teams from all over the Midwest and a website that hundreds visit daily. This is a great opportunity for your business to reach players and their families. Whether it would be through our Website or Tournament Advertising it's a great business opportunity.

CSS Booster Club

The Cornhusker Shooting Stars Booster Club is a great way for you to financially help our program and show your support in the development of athletes.

The cost of a booster club sponsorship is $25/summer. All CSS Booster Club members will be recognized in either summer MAYB or Battle on the Plains. The cornhusker shooting stars are a 501 © Corporation. All donations are tax deductible.

The player you purchase from will receive 80% of booster club and 75% of the advertisement sales towards their player fees. The remaining 20- 25% will be applied towards administration of the programs.

Athlete to be Beneficiary of Support:

Coaching Philosphy

CSS coaches strive to challenge players to achieve their maximum potential at every practice and game.

The CSS Club Basketball program provides instruction and skill development in a highly competitive environment while demonstrating and instilling core values of successful attitudes and behaviors possessed by successful athletes. Athletes will not be discriminated against and will all have equal opportunities to excel in this program through hard work, commitment, desire, leadership, and talent. Good sportsmanship is demonstrated and required by coaches, players, and parents

Tournaments are selected based on the best competition and the best potential for growth in the game of basketball. Emphasis is not placed on winning, but more importantly on the desire and the preparation to win; not on achieving the goal, but more importantly on the journey to reach the goal.

Business Sponsor

A business sponsorship includes the company logo on all CSS website pages under sponsors, Tournament Website AD and Tournament Flyer with your choice of event. More options are available for higher level sponsors. Contact CSS for details.

Corporate Sponsor

A corporate sponsorship will include a tournament or team named from your company. Company logo on the CSS website and all CSS material mailed out, and if you sponsor a team you logo will be on team travel shirts. Contact CSS for more details.
