

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL COACHES, PLAYERS AND PARENTS!

It is 2016 and Midwest Quarterback Camps is happy to announce our NEW dates and sites for this upcoming off season. This year we would like to make our camp more affordable to all families and players who wish to attend. This year our 4 hour instructional quarterback camp will cost only $99 for any interested participants. Here is a list of teaching points that you can expect your child or athlete to receive when attending an MWQB camp:

- The most efficient way to pass a football.
- Proper footwork for multiple offenses in the pass and run game.
- How to read a defense with proper consistent progression.
- The QB will be videotaped while reading a defense and making decisions based on coverages. This will allow us to not only critique their passing motion and footwork, but will also allow us to see the field through their eyes and make sure they are seeing the field the right way.
- Leadership and life skills that can be used and also learned on the field.

Here is a list of our 2016 camp dates and times:
