

Top Ten Reasons to call The Academy home!

1. Our Coaches – The talented and experienced coaching staff is full of familiar faces and is no stranger to success. Comprised of the areas top middle school, high school, college and club coaches, our staff is our strongest asset at The Academy!
2. Our Focus on Training – Led by former Purdue Assistant Coach Travis Fuller, our training model allows players to build solid foundations on which to grow. We believe technical individual training is the key to team success and structure our practices and season accordingly.
3. The Facility – With 70,000 square feet dedicated to volleyball programs, activities and events, The Academy's facility is a wonderful place to call home! With eleven courts, ample space for spectators, a ProShop, concession area, meeting rooms and more... there is no other volleyball facility like it in the Midwest!

4. Camps & Clinics – Our gym is always busy with summer camps, positional training, Little Spikers, Fall Youth League and private lessons. Serving players from 4 – 18 years old, our training is available year-round, at reasonable prices, and with quality coaching.
5. Non-Travel Teams – In addition to our Elite and Regional teams, The Academy offers Non-Travel Teams. The reduced practice and tournament schedules allow us to offer a quality club experience with significantly reduced fees.
6. Cost-effective Travel – To reduce travel expenses, we plan to host 2 boys tournaments at The Academy during the regular winter club season. Our teams travel regionally (Louisville, Chicago, Cincinnati, Columbus) and provide National Tournaments as an option (not required) for our teams and players.

7. Our Location – We are located at 6635 E 30th Street in Indianapolis, near the 465/70 east interchange. We are minutes from Indianapolis schools and an easy drive from Zionsville, Fishers, Lawrence, Greenwood, etc. Our central location not only positively affects your drive; it brings talented athletes from a number of communities, making our Academy Family even stronger!
8. College Recruiting – Our full-time College Recruiting Coordinator will serve as your guide through the often-overwhelming recruiting process! All of our club players (regardless of age or team level) can utilize our resources and benefit from our proactive recruiting assistance.
9. ProShop – No need to shop anywhere else for your next pair of shoes, kneepads, or passing bands! The Academy's ProShop is filled with your favorite volleyball apparel, equipment, and gifts. With an endless variety of Mizuno, Nike, Ultra Ankle, and more, you won't have to go far for quality gear at outstanding prices!

10. Our Staff – In addition to our coaches, The Academy is proud to provide an experienced administrative staff that is constantly working for you! Whether you need a payment processed, have questions about fundraising, want to schedule a lesson, or need advice on your upcoming college visit, we are here for you!
