

Illinois Fire Juniors Tournament Refund Policy

Summary:

It is understood that occasionally tournaments in which Illinois Fire Juniors teams are participating may be cancelled either partially or entirely due to unforeseen circumstances, such as inclement weather conditions.

Partial Cancellation:

In the event an 'away' tournament is cancelled after partial play, the rules of that specific tournament's governing body will prevail.

Participation in an Alternate Tournament:

- In the event a tournament is cancelled in its entirety, the Illinois Fire Juniors Director(s) of Coaching will work to find an alternative tournament for Illinois Fire Juniors teams affected by the cancellation.
- If this occurs, reasonable attempts will be made to by the Illinois Fire Juniors Director(s) of Coaching to get the team added into another tournament.
- This ensures participation in all tournaments included as part of regular club fees.

Guest Players:

If a student athlete has participated in all tournaments included in their fees and additional GUEST PLAYERS are needed for other teams, selections will be made on a rotating basis at the discretion of the Directors of Coaching and on the basis of player availability in accordance with the Guest Player Policy.

Refunds:

In general, refunds will be handled as follows:

- For active club members, refunds will be credited to the student athlete's account
- If the student athlete is no longer a part of the club, a refund (via check) will be sent to the student athlete's parents/guardian.
