OLD BEARCATS VANISH; CASE OF YOUTHANASIA?

by Jim Kittilsby

Just a mention of euthanasia when Tommy Lee is within earshot and the Bearcat boss thinks you're talking about his football team.

The emphasis is on the first, or youth, syllable at Willamette, not good-riddance injections for aging athletes.

Willamette has outfitted a kiddie korps this fall, with just six seniors and seven junior on the roster. To draw a comparison, there are 25 upper classmen in Lute suits.

Paying the price of inexperience, with 16 freshmen and sophomores in the starting lineup, the Bearcats were stunned 29-8 by UPS in the season opener. On a downhill slide, the 'Cats fell to Humboldt State 13-7, Linfield 35-0, and Pacific 14-6. Last week Willamette committed 12 turnovers in losing to Whitworth 14-9.

Third in the NWC last year with a 4-2 mark, 5-4 overall, Willamette has decorated talent at two defensive positions. Kent junior Ken Garland was a second team All-NWC pick at end. Senior linebacker Steve Burdick, twice voted player of the week at Willamette this fall, was also a NWC second-teamer in 1977.

Offensive threats include wide receiver Pete Sequiera and tailback Kevin Chilton, the latter one of the loop's most elusive kickoff return artists.

PLU quarterback Brad Westering, a junior, needs to connect on just 10 passes to become the school's all-time career completion leader. The Lutes, 3-2 overall, 2-1 in the NWC, have two running backs, Guy Ellison and Jeff Cornish, averaging better than six yards per carry.

LUTE-A-TOOT

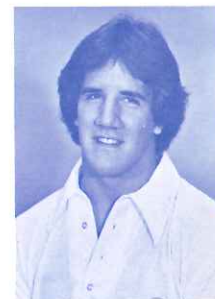

SCOTT RAY (23), junior running back from Mossyrock, who renders quick service, plans a career as a restaurant manager.

PHIL EARLEY (87), senior defensive end, a vocalist for the infamous "Non-Letter-men", also belts a few numbers on the gridiron.

CORY McCULLOCH (83), sophomore end from Bothell, who prepped at Cascade HS in Everett, is frequently a Lute starter.

MIKE DURRETT (55), sophomore linebacker from Tacoma's Foss HS, is one of but a few Lutes to letter as a frosh.

PASSIFIC LU AND PASSIFIC U ARMED — FAIL AS PACIFISTS

by Jim Kittilsby

Since both Pacific Lutheran and Pacific University have exercised the inalienable right to bear arms, the Pacifics can't pass as pacifists, but they can shoot the football.

Passific LU favors the strong right appendage of junior Brad Westering. The tall Tacoman connected with his receivers on 10 occasions two weeks ago against Willamette, PLU's last outing. With a season and a quarter remaining, Westering has 235 completions, a school career record. The old mark was held by Doug McClary, who toiled in Lute livery from 1959 through 1961.

Passific U counters with senior Ken Dahl, who earned second team All-NWC honors in 1977 on the strength of his 1524 yard skyway collection. Dahl, the loop's number two passer last season, has been hobbled by a knee injury.

Boxer coach Frank Buckiewicz is bucking for his first winning season since 1972. Pacific enters the fray 3-3, 2-1 in conference play.

Dahl, who has thrown for 1089 yards to date, including a 292 yard explosion against powerful Oregon College, is protected by a solid offensive line. Anchored by co-captain Rick Anderson, the forward wall is considered Pacific's best in at least six years. Calvin Myles is Dahl's principal receiver. Slotback John Beal was a second team NWC all-star last year.

PLU, which enjoys a 17-8-3 lead in this series, including a five year win streak, is currently 3-3. To complement the air show, the Lutes are getting 5.1 and 6.4 yard per carry runs from Guy Ellison and Jeff Cornish.

LUTE-A-TOOT

JOHN WALLACE (79), PLU's answer to the Incredible Hulk, puts every ounce of avoirdupois into his booming kickoffs.

KEITH WIEMERSLAGE (71), sophomore defensive tackle, pushes around foes on the mat as well, placing fourth in NWC wrestling.

GREG ROHR (77), freshman defensive tackle from nearby Washington HS, was an all-state center and heavy-weight runnerup in wrestling.

SCOTT DAVIS (50), sophomore center from Tacoma's Foss High School, a prep all-city pick, lettered as a PLU freshman.

GLITTERING GRID NUGGETS UNCOVERED IN EASTERN ORE

by Jim Kittilsby

The pastoral setting of La Grande lends itself better to agriculture than mining, but there's no disputing the claim that there are glittering grid nuggets in Eastern Ore.

Make that Eastern Oregon State College, which meets PLU for the first time today, earmarked Lutheran Family Day.

Don Turner, a veteran of 23 autumns in the coaching business, is in his initial season with the Mounties and brings a 3-5 ledger to Tacoma. However, like the La Grande economic base, he's a producer.

Turner's tour of duty has included Bemidji State, U.S. International, and University of Minnesota-Morris. During his 115-75-6 travels, Turner developed 47 gridders who went on to ink professional contracts.

EOSC has accumulated considerable yardage off the throwing arm of junior quarterback Chuck Melendez. A transfer from Santa Barbara City College, the NAIA's number seven passer (1248 yards) threw for 281 yards in last week's 33-21 win over Southern Oregon. In that game, Tim DeCoff had a school record 50 yard field goal for the Mounties.

The Mounties are District II's stingiest against the pass, the rush led by defensive end Bill Dane. With 4.6 speed in the 40, Dane was both All-Evco and All-District in 1977. Eastern's interior offensive line, which averages 238, is anchored by Tuck Neilson, a part-time farmer, married with two kids, and a 3.9 student in pre-medicine.

PLU, 4-3, mathematically alive in a bid to repeat as NAIA District 1 kingpin, shares two common foes with Eastern. Both schools have victories over Whitworth and Pacific.

LUTE-A-TOOT

MIKE WESTMILLER (33), gifted frosh running back from Yakima's Eisenhower HS, was state co-back of the year 1977.

MIKE PETERSON (73), sophomore tackle from Richland, hummed a happy tune as a prepster on the All Northwest Choir.

MATT SOLUM (76), junior defensive tackle from Oak Harbor, applies the pin techniques he acquired as a heavyweight wrestler.

ROCKY RUDDY (74), sophomore defensive tackle from Sumner, has moved from an end position with the Bombers to a starting role.

STAR-STUDED TITLE FOES HAVE ASTERISKS ON BOOKS

by Jim Kittilsby

No astrology message intended, but some of the stars in this *could-be NAIA District 1 championship game are strictly paper adornments. There are, of course, gifted gladiators who glitter under the sign of the Eagle or Lute.

That little qualifying snow-flake, the asterisk, has an application as *what-may-be the third district title game unfolds. PLU has won 11 consecutive regular season games, dating back to 1967 against Evergreen Conference opponents. In the process, the Lutes have outscored the Evco foes 410 to 52.

*Title talk is before-the-fact supposition and hinges on the outcome of other games in the district today. PLU was stunned 48-28 by Western in the first "tenth game" playoff in 1976. The Lutes avenged this setback by thumping the Vikings 24-0 in the 1978 post-season fray at the Kingdome.

John Massengale's Screamin' Eagles make their first Parkland appearance in well over a decade, bearing a 4-5 record. On scoreboard computations, EWU is 6-3, but the use of an ineligible player resulted in forfeit handouts to Whitworth and Western Montana.

The Eagles have 34 lettermen back from the 5-4 squad of 1977, which fell to PLU 22-6 in Cheney. Eastern is among the NAIA national statistical leaders in both total offense and passing offense. Junior quarterback Mark Laitala, second in District 1 total offense, airs frequently to Curt Didier, the district leader in receptions.

For the Lutes, 5-3, quarterback Brad Westering needs just 76 passing yards today to break the career record of 3382, set by Rick Finseth (1971-74).

LUTE-A-TOOT
