

Centennial Basketball

Social Media Policy

The students will use social media appropriately, and will represent Centennial Basketball well.

The student will not:

- speak about other schools or teams
- speak poorly about coaching staff or other players a part of the program
- post school inappropriate material

Each situation will be handled on a situation by situation basis.

By signing this form, the student and parent agree to the social media policy, and understand that using social media inappropriately and that cause a detriment to the program, there will be consequences to follow. This may result in suspension or dismissal from the team.
