NYAH GREEN (@NyahGreen3117)

CLASS	HEIGHT	POSITION	HIGH SCHOOL	AAU CLUB
2019	6'1	GUARD	BISHOP LYNCH	SA FINEST
EVENT EVALUATION
Bishop Lynch came up short in the state championship game, however, Nyah Green put on a 3PT shooting clinic all weekend. In the semifinal game against Incarnate Word, she displayed her extended range, and ability to knock down contested deep balls. She ended up shooting well over 40% from beyond the arc over the weekend, despite being double teamed. This is the only kid I've seen that can get 30 in a competitive game, shooting jumpshots, something not many in the country can do.

ENDYIA ROGERS (@Endyia_Rogers)

2019	5'7	GUARD	BISHOP LYNCH	DFW ELITE

Endyia Rogers scored from everywhere throughout the weekend. In the semifinal game against Incarnate Word she got off to a slow start, but scored 16 points in the 3rd quarter to help Bishop Lynch take the lead and eventually win the game. She finished the game with 31 and averaged 27.5 points for weekend. Aside from her scoring, her relentlessness and extreme competitiveness was on display all weekend as well.

NEVEAH TOT

2020	5'5	GUARD	PARISH EPISCOPAL	SYE ELITE
EVENT EVALUATION
Daughter of former WNBA player Helen Darling (10 year veteran), Neveah Tot was a super-hero all weekend. She scored from all 3 layers, all weekend, and sealed both wins at free throw line as well. Prestonwood played stingy junk defense, and Bishop Lynch was extremely aggressive in their man press. Neither team gave the 5'5 point guard much trouble as she penetrated, kicked, and scored her way to a state championship victory against the defending champions. She had 23 in the championship game and averaged 18.5 points over the weekend.

NEVEAH PARKINSON (@Ayye_Veah32)

2020	6'2	POST	PARISH EPISCOPAL	N/A
EVENT EVALUATION
Parkinson is no doubt the anchor of the Parish Episcopal ship. She owned the paint all weekend with her size, and strength. Guards and post alike had a difficult time finishing around her inside, while she finished in the paint fairly easily against the competition. She averaged 11.5 in both games. Aside from her inside presence, she also freed up Tot with excellent screening action in their 2-man game action as well. She was a match-up nightmare offensively all weekend, but her defense is what stood out most during the tournament.

PAYTON HICKS (@phicks13)

2019	5'4	POINT GUARD	PRESTONWOOD	LADY JETS PLATINUM ELITE

EVENT EVALUATION

Prestonwood got off to a slow start in the semifinal game against Parish Episcopal. Payton Hicks however, was steady throughout. Prestonwood trailed 22-10 after the 1st, AND won the 2nd period 25-3. Throughout the game, Payton Hicks was involved in almost every play, especially during the 2nd period run. Gritty & tough are two words that come to mind. She guarded one of the best sophomore guards in the state while continuing to push tempo and find transition scores for her self & her teammates.

EMILY PEEBLES (@EmilyPeebles)

2019	6'1	POST	INCARNATE WORD	SA ISLANDERS

EVENT EVALUATION

Incarnate Word played Bishop Lynch tough all game. They held the lead for much of the first half and into the break. Emily Peebles did the little (big) things all game. She consistently got her teammates open with fundamental screens, and ball reversals from the pinch post. In addition to setting up her teammates, she also scored timely baskets all night; from the paint, free throw line, and the perimeter.
