1991 FOOTBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
ARLIN LIKNESS, Hayti

Arlin Likness, who has coached the Hamlin High Chargers for the past twelve years, owns several impressive career statistics. Not only has his football team won three consecutive Class 11B state titles, but they have posted a twelve-year mark of 104-26, averaging nearly nine victories per season.

Likness' philosophy is simple. "Prepare your team to play its best without sacrificing the enjoyment of the game."

1991 BOYS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR
GENE BORMANN, Yankton

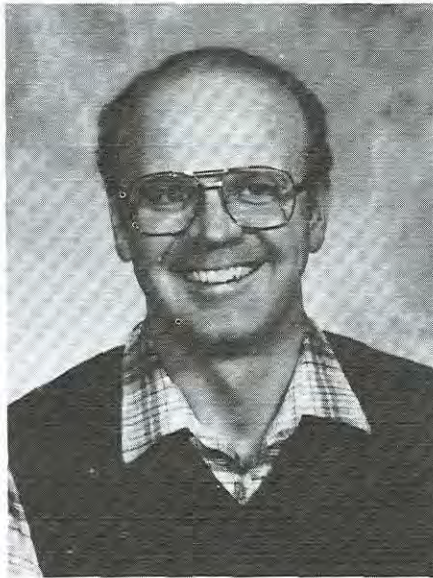

When the Yankton High School Bucks won the state's Class AA cross country championship last fall, it was the culmination of twenty-eight years of coaching that sport for Coach Gene Bormann.

A Canistota native and a Yankton College alum, Bormann had his eyes set on a high school basketball coaching career after getting his degree, but that idea was sidetracked when the cross country position opened at Lennox. He coached the Oriole harriers for thirteen years before moving to Yankton, where he has completed his fifteenth year by winning his first state championship.

"I don't see this as a personal accomplishment," Bormann modestly said. "I'm grateful to be honored by my fellow coaches, but as with any success there are many other people involved."

1991 GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR
TOM FREECE, Spearfish

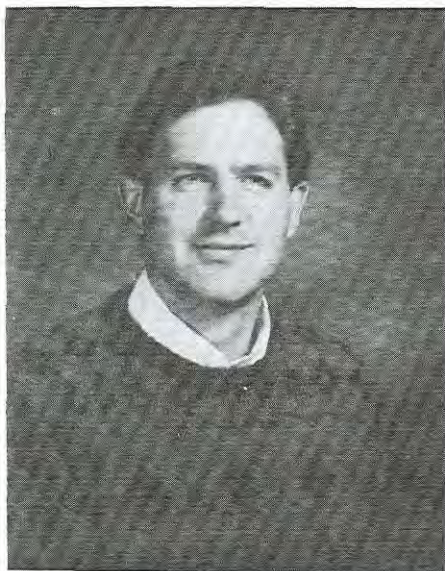

A combination of youth and a team concept were the tools employed by Spearfish coach Tom Freece to spur his girls' cross country team to a state championship last fall.

A fifteen-year veteran with the Spearfish program, seven of them as the coach of both the boys' and girls' cross country runners, Freece has twice won boys' titles, but this is the first for the girls.

"It was a combination of a lot of things," he commented. "Especially a good balance between leadership and youthful enthusiasm."

1991 GIRLS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
WADE ROZELL, Mellette

Wade Rozelle's Northwestern girls stopped a 101-game Wakonda win streak on their way to the state Class B girls state basketball championship. They finished the year with a perfect 24-0 record.

Rozell, who was an all-stater at Warner High School and then a collegiate cage star with the Northern State Wolves, took over the Wildcat's reins in 1987. His girls' team now has the state's longest win string at 25 games in a row.

1992 GYMNASTICS COACH OF THE YEAR
CLIFF JORGENSON, Ft. Pierre

Cliff Jorgenson has taken the Stanley County High School Lady Buffs to the Class A state gymnastics meet in each of his seven seasons as their coach.

They have placed in the top five teams six times and were the runner-up team in 1990.

1992 WRESTLING COACH OF THE YEAR
WAYNE SCHERR, Wagner

Wayne Scherr has been the head wrestling coach for the Wagner Red Raiders for the past seven years, and this past season led his team to an undefeated record. They won every tournament that they entered prior to their state tournament championship.

1992 BOYS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
KRAIG ULVELING, Watertown

Kraig Ulveling led the Watertown Arrows to their first state boys basketball championship in thirty-three years last March. "My goal since my first day in Watertown has been for the people of South Dakota to respect our basketball program, and I think that we are headed in the right direction," the Minnesota native commented.

The Arrows posted fine 19-4 records in each of the past two seasons.

1992 GOLF COACH OF THE YEAR
JIM MC GLONE, Flandreau

Veteran Flandreau coach, Jim McGlone, led his boy golfers to the Class B state championship this spring. For the victory, McGlone has been named the S.D.H.S.C.A. Golf Coach-of-the-Year. This is the second time that he has been selected for this honor.

1992 GIRLS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR
JOHN HOUSKA, Rapid City

For the third straight year the Rapid City Central girls' track team captured the state Class AA state championship this spring. For the extraordinary feat, John Houska, the Cobbler's veteran coach, has been named Girls Track Coach-of-the-Year.

"This year's team was dedicated, and they knew how to compete," was Houska's capsule explanation of their success.

Houska also coached the Central boys' team to state championships in 1990 and 1991.

1992 BOYS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR
JIM MINER, Yankton

It took fourteen long years, but veteran Yankton coach Jim Miner's Yankton Bucks finally found the winner's circle with a State Class AA track and field championship this year. In spite of having one of South Dakota's outstanding records in overall state competition, the title was the first-ever track championship for the Bucks.

"We had outstanding balance with some outstanding athletes," Miner said. "We won five golds, but more importantly, we placed well up in eleven of the events in the state meet."

Miner, who was honored last year by the S.D.H.S.C.A. as the Assistant Coach of the Year for his service with the Bucks' football team, previously coached state girls' track champions in 1982 and 1984.

1992 VOLLEYBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
JONEL SMITH, Rapid City

Rapid City Stevens rolled through the past season with a startling 39-1 record as they rolled to the Class AA state crown. The Raiderette's only loss was to Class A champion Belle Fourche.

For their fine accomplishment, Jonel Smith was named the Volleyball Coach of the Year by the S.D.H.S.C.A.

1992 TENNIS COACH OF THE YEAR
KRAIG ULVELING, Watertown

Watertown's Kraig Ulveling, whose boys' tennis team rolled to their first-ever state Class A tennis championship this past spring, has been named to his second Coach-of-the-Year honor. Ulveling was also selected the boys' basketball coach of the year.

The Arrows have posted a 27-0 dual meet record over the past two years.

1992 ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR
KEN KNAPP, Rapid City

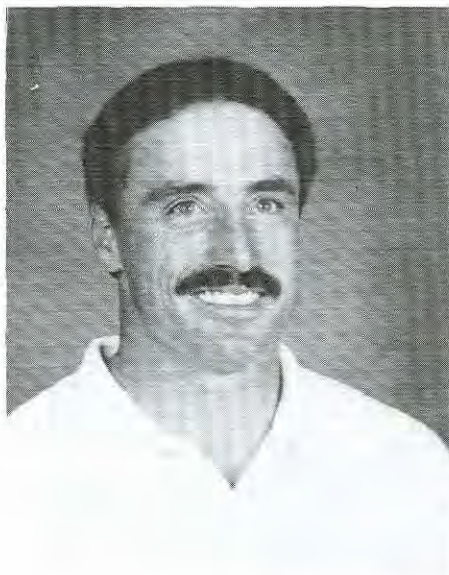

Ken Knapp has served as a versatile member of the Rapid City Central coaching staff for the past eighteen years, at the junior high, junior varsity and varsity levels.

In addition, he has been active in the S.D.H.S.C.A. as a member of its Board of Directors and has served as a Commissioner of the Black Hills Officials Association.

"He is a picture-perfect assistant coach," says the head Cobbler boys basketball coach, Kim Templeton. "He is always there, through the peaks and the valleys, and always has positive things to say."

1992 ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF THE YEAR
JERRY MC PARTLAND, Castlewood

Jerry McPartland, popular head of the Castlewood athletic department, has been at his post for the past sixteen years. In addition to being the athletic director, he has coached Castlewood football, track and cross country teams to state championships.

McPartland has served on the executive committee of the S.D.H.S.A.D.'s Association for five years and currently is the group's president.

1992 SPORTSWRITER OF THE YEAR
RON WOOD, Rapid City

Ron Wood, who has reported the South Dakota sports scene as a member of the Rapid City Journal staff for the past thirty-three years, has been named the Sportswriter of the Year by the S.D.H.S.C.A.

MAX HAWK AWARD

This award, in honor of Max Hawk, is to recognize and honor outstanding leadership, contributions, and dedication of service to the South Dakota High School Coaches Association.

The countless hours of unselfish time and effort, the drive for excellence and the love for athletics and his fellow man personify Max Hawk.

The South Dakota
High School Coaches Association
is proud to recognize and honor
VIRG POLAK
Watertown
as this year's recipient

1992 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Given for outstanding contributions to high school athletics and dedication to the highest and best in high school athletics.

KEN KESSINGER, Sioux Falls, SD

Dr. Ken Kessinger has been active in the state's athletic circles for over forty years, on the high school, collegiate, and community scenes.

An Augustana graduate, where he was a star athlete, he coached American Legion baseball for many years, starting during his college days.

Kessinger coached at Chamberlain High School for five years before returning to Augustana where he served on both varsity and intra-mural staffs until his recent retirement. He has been a coach, a teacher, an official, and a published sports historian. He is previously honored by the S.D.H.S.A.A., Augustana College, the North Central Conference, and the South Dakota Amateur Baseball Association.

JACK DORMAN, Castlewood

Jack Dorman was the editor and publisher of the Hamlin County Republican for thirty-eight years. In all of those years he was an active supporter of all high school activities, with a special affinity for sports.

In addition to cooperating with the high school coaches and administrators, Dorman was an active member of the state's American Legion Athletic Commission and was a Boy Scout adult leader for thirty-five years.

A true patriot, Dorman was instrumental in promoting the proper respect for the American flag at the state's high school athletic contests.

*****
ODE TO A VOLUNTEER

Many will be shocked to find
When the day of judgement nears
That there's a special place in heaven
Set aside for volunteers,
Furnished with big recliners,
Satin couches and footstools,
Where there are no committee chairmen
No group leaders or car pools,
No eager team that needs a coach,
No bazaar and no bake sale.
There will be nothing to staple,
Not one thing to fold or mail.
Telephone lists will be outlawed,
But a finger snap will bring
Cool drinks and gourmet dinners,
And rare treats fit for a king.
You ask, who'll serve these privileged few
And work for all they're worth?
Why all those who reaped the benefits,
And not once volunteered on earth.
