Closing Remarks Georgia Adolph

1995 FOOTBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
RUSS MORRELL, Bon Homme High School

Perennial contenders for state honors in football, the Bon Homme Cavaliers have become firmly entrenched at the top of the heap. They won their second straight Class 11B state championship at the Dakota Dome last fall, running their win streak to 21 games. For the Cav's sparkling success, coach Russ Morrell has been honored as Football Coach of the Year.

Russ has racked up a career record of 160 wins and only 55 losses, but the state crown had eluded him until now. "The smiles on the kids' faces show how happy they are because they had a goal and worked hard to accomplish it. They'll always remember that lesson."

1995 BOYS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR
FORREST FLAAGEN, Rapid City Stevens High School

Veteran coach Forry Flaagen's team won its first state championship under his leadership last fall - his eighth season with the Raiders. He has coached three girls' teams to state titles in previous years at Stevens and has won two other championships while coaching at Spearfish. The Stevens Raiders swept both the boys' and the girls' state titles last fall.

1995 GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY COACH OF THE YEAR
MARLENE LORENZ, Arlington High School

Marlene became the girls' cross country coach in Arlington for the first time last fall - and it will be hard to match her inaugural season. Her Cardinals won the state Class B state title in October, and she has been chosen as Girls Cross Country Coach of the Year. She had previously coached the Cardinals distance runners for the track team.

1995 GIRLS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
BOB SITTIG, Baltic High School

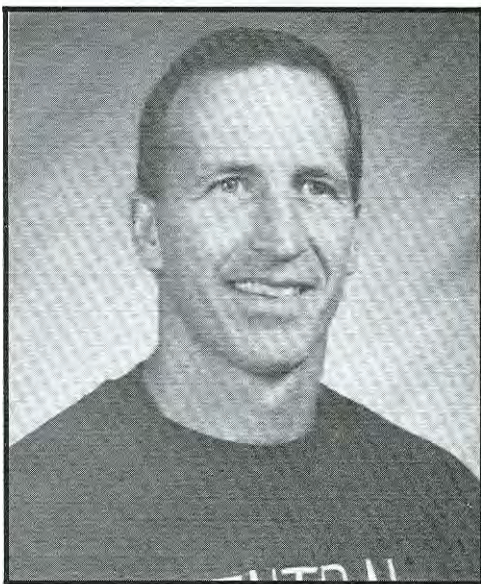

When the Baltic girls defeated Avon 59-56 in two overtimes to win the girls Class B state basketball championship, it marked the first time that a Baltic team had ever won a state title.

Bob Sittig, in ten years as the girls' coach in his home town, had led his team to the regional finals four times, but hadn't gotten past that hurdle until this year. His overall record is 154-170.

1996 GYMNASTICS COACH OF THE YEAR
RANDY HAGEN, Rapid City Central High School

Randy Hagen set high goals for his gymnastics team at Central, and it paid off. His girls won the state championship, and his peers voted him Gymnastics Coach of the Year.

A Sisseton High School and Northern State graduate, Hagen credited a season-long head-to-head struggle with crosstown rival Stevens as a key factor in the Cobblers' success. "Our spirited competition kept us both sharp all year," he said. "That and our great work ethic were determining factors in our success."

1996 VOLLEYBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
MIKE WEST, Philip High School

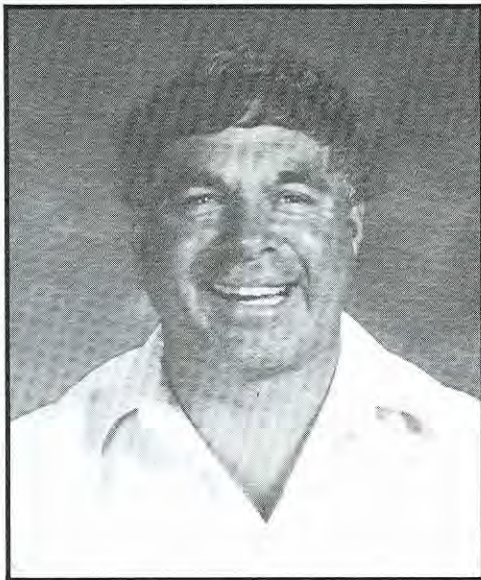

“We just refused to get beat,” commented Mike West in recapping the Scotties’ state championship year. “Our girls were behind in both the semifinals and the finals of the state tournament, but decided what they had to do to win; and they took it all.”

West, a hometown boy and a graduate of Black Hills State, has been at the helm of the Philip volleyball program for eight years. The volleyball crown is the first-ever state championship in the school’s history.

1996 WRESTLING COACH OF THE YEAR
KEN RUML, Howard

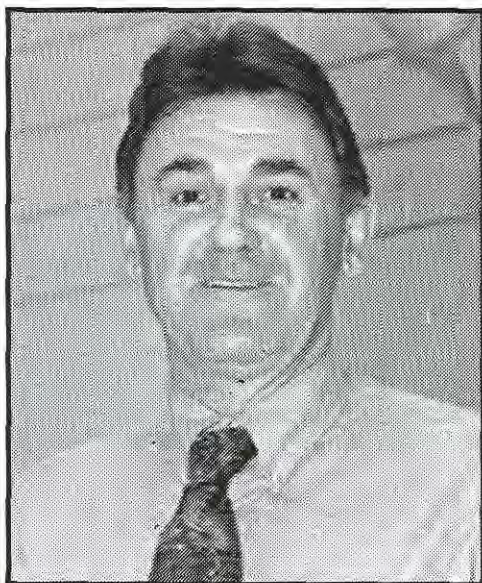

Ken Ruml's outstanding success with the Howard wrestling teams really paid off for him this year. Last summer he was awarded national coaching honors and his colleagues in South Dakota followed by naming him the state's Wrestling Coach of the Year.

Ruml's Tigers have been Class B contenders in nearly all of his nineteen years at Howard. He has a dual record of 161-37 with five undefeated teams. He has coached seven individual state champions and 72 state place winners. Ken is proud of his young wrestlers. "We have a good junior high program, and that really helps."

1996 BOYS BASKETBALL COACH OF THE YEAR
JIM SCHLEKEWAY, Mobridge High School

Success has followed Jim Schlekeway throughout his long involvement with the game of basketball. After an all-state career at Britton, he went on to Northern State College and scored 1,862 points for their record book.

He began coaching at Sioux Falls O'Gorman, spent two years in Bloomington, Minnesota, then coached at Todd County for seven years. He has been at Mobridge for fifteen years and has a 28-year coaching record of 336-210.

Schlekeway's last year's Tigers had a 19-2 record. "We had a good group who enjoyed playing basketball," he said. "The camaraderie and chemistry were really good."

1996 GIRLS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR
GENE BROWNELL, Aberdeen

The Aberdeen Central girls' track team was successful in their defense of the Eastern South Dakota Conference track and field championship. They also scored the highest point total ever by the Golden Eagles in state competition - 75½ points. For his team's fine showing, Gene Brownell was named the Girls Track Coach of the Year - the second year in a row he has won the honor.

"I was surprised to win," he said. "It says an awful lot for the attitude of the kids and the coaches in our program."

1996 BOYS TRACK COACH OF THE YEAR
JIM MINER, Yankton

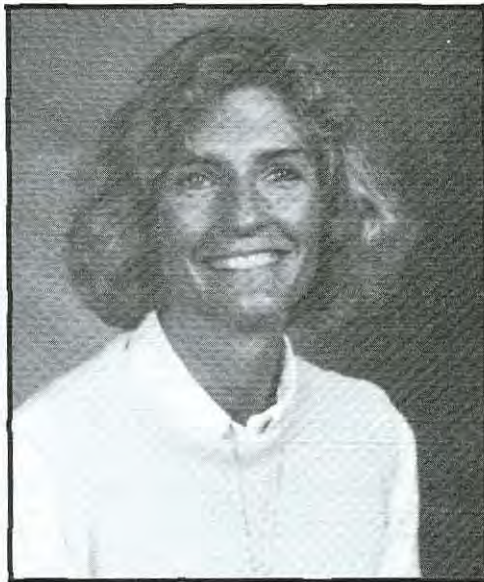

The Yankton Bucks turned on the speed to win the state Class AA track and field championship. With his young team taking home the gold in the dashes and both short relay races, the state crown followed their E.S.D. conference title win.

“We had some fine talent,” commented Miner, “and we had an outstanding work ethic and great leadership. That’s a winning combination.”

1996 TENNIS COACH OF THE YEAR

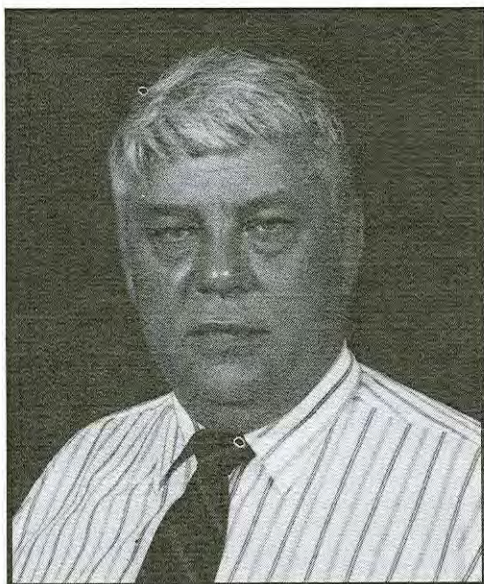

CHRIS DUMMERMUTH, Sioux Falls Lincoln High School

Chris Dummermuth's Lincoln Patriots dominated the Class A boys' tennis scene in South Dakota last spring, taking home another state title after an impressive showing. During the past ten years she has capably led her teams to the top of the heap. For her continuing success, Chris has again been named the Tennis Coach of the Year.

1996 GOLF COACH OF THE YEAR
JIM SCHLINGEN, Plankinton

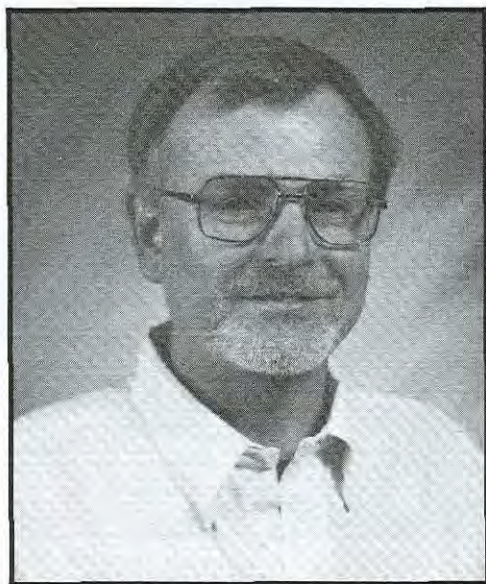

Hard work, as well as talent, made the 1996 Plankinton golf team the most successful in the school's history and made Joe Schlingen the Golf Coach of the Year. Junior Adam Anderson was the Class B tournament medalist and led his team to a strong second-place finish.

1996 ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR
IN BOYS' SPORTS

RAY BOETEL, Rapid City Stevens High School

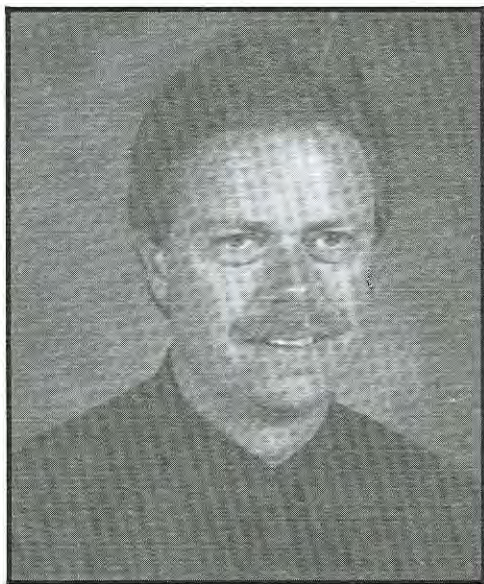

Ray Boetel has been a member of the Rapid City Stevens track coaching staff, specializing in jumping and vaulting events, since 1984. He had previously taught and coached at Lake Preston and at Douglas High School.

His Raider pole vaulters have had outstanding success, with five of them in the top eight places in the All-Time Top Ten list in South Dakota. His student athletes have won the gold in the last five state meets. Boetel coached the state's first high school seven-foot high jumper and the first sixteen-foot pole vaulter.

1996 ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR
IN GIRLS' SPORTS

TERRY ENGELLAND, Sioux Falls Lincoln High School

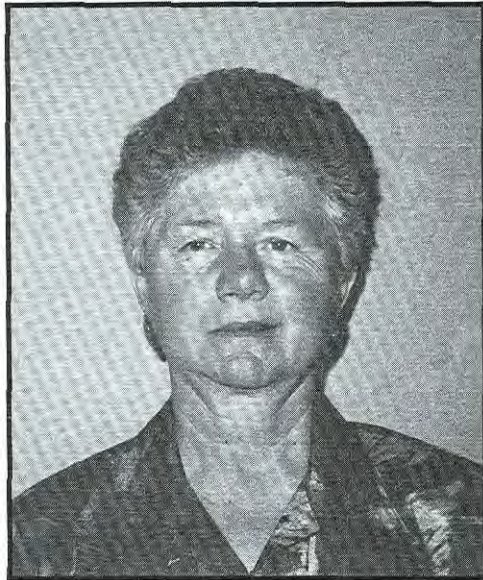

Terry Engelland has been a member of the Sioux Falls Lincoln track coaching staff since his graduation from U.S.D. in 1970. He is a Sioux Falls native, having graduated from Washington High. A popular track clinician, Terry has coached twenty state high school hurdle champions and has had 32 gold medal hurdlers in the Sioux Interstate Conference.

In addition to his coaching duties, Engelland is the chairman of Lincoln High's social studies department.

1996 ASSISTANT COACH OF THE YEAR
IN JUNIOR HIGH/MIDDLE SCHOOL SPORTS
LUCY LINDSKOV, Whittier Middle School, Sioux Falls

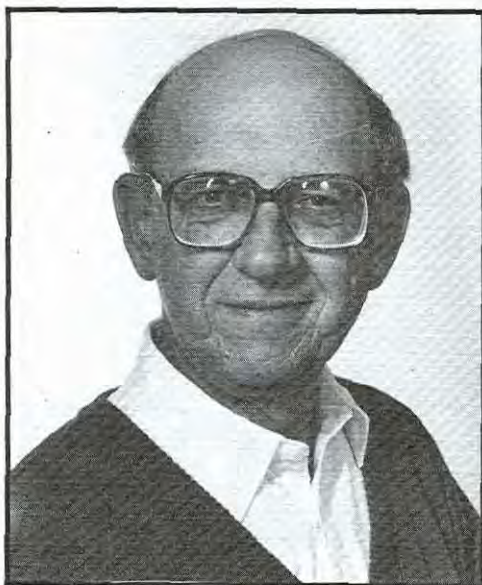

Lucy Lindskov, Whittier's athletic coordinator, has been at the school since 1969, and has coached basketball, volleyball, gymnastics and track. She has been involved with girls' athletics since 1962, when she began a girls' track program in Lemmon.

Lindskov has been a leader in gymnastics in the state since the sport's inception. She received the National Distinguished Service Award in gymnastics in 1994-95.

1996 ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF THE YEAR
BOB PETERSON, Sturgis
(posthumously)

"It is difficult and sad to honor a fine man like Bob Peterson posthumously," commented one of his colleagues. "He was one of the most popular men in our profession!"

Peterson, who died in March, had coached both boys' basketball and golf at Sturgis for many years. His 1972 Scoopers were the state boys' golf champions. Sturgis put in a new track and field facility and a new basketball court during his administration. He was in his final days as president of the Black Hills Conference at the time of his death.

1996 OFFICIAL OF THE YEAR
RICHARD ROCKAFELLOW, Geddes

Rockafellow's long officiating career began when he was a high school student. "I used to work 'B' games in basketball and then play in the varsity game," he reported.

He became a registered official in 1956 and retained his certification until 1988. His ongoing involvement in track has made him one of the state's busiest meet starters. Also a respected baseball official, Rockafellow was inducted into the South Dakota Baseball Umpires Hall of Fame in 1993. He is now the Superintendent of Schools in Geddes.

1996 SPORTSWRITER OF THE YEAR
DON LINDNER, Rapid City

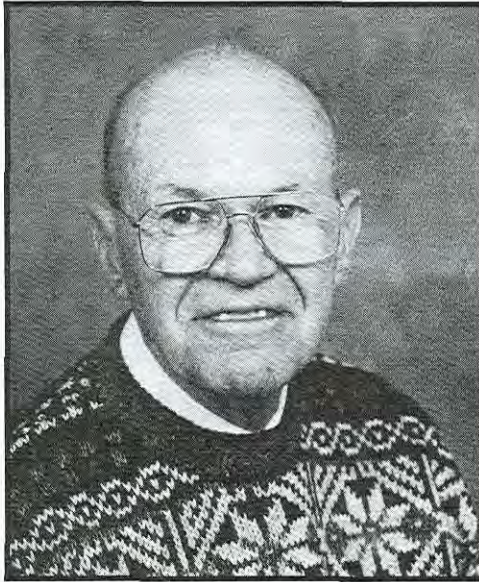

Don Lindner will retire from nearly a half century of covering South Dakota sports this summer; and he will leave with the coaches' accolades ringing in his ears as he receives the Sportswriter of the Year award.

With tours at Madison, Watertown and on the staff of SoDak Sports preceding him to his long tenure in Rapid City, his successful career has been emphasized by the eleven "Sportswriter of the Year" honors he has received from his peers, the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters.

1996 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Given for outstanding contributions to high school athletics and dedication to the highest and best in high school athletics.

GALE "RIP" ROHR, Watertown

An outstanding athlete at Scotland High School and at Southern State College, where he earned twelve varsity letters in football, basketball and track, Rohr coached and taught in the Watertown system for thirty years, retiring in 1987.

Most of the Arrows' fine group of athletes were started in their athletic careers by Rip Rohr. He coached elementary football for thirty years, basketball in grade schools for most of his long tenure, and began the Watertown elementary track and field program. A modest, immensely popular teacher, coach and citizen, he is, according to his peers, an exceptionally worthy recipient of this Distinguished Service Award

ODE TO A VOLUNTEER

(Author Unknown)

Many will be shocked to find
When the day of judgement nears
That a there's a special place in heaven
Set aside for volunteers,
Furnished with big recliners,
Satin couches and footstools,
Where there are no committee chairmen
No group leaders or car pools,
No eager team that needs a coach,
No bazaar and no bake sale.

There will be nothing to staple,
Not one thing to fold or mail.
Telephone lists will be outlawed,
But a fingersnap will bring
Cool drinks and gourmet dinners,
And rare treats fit for a king.
You ask, who'll serve these privileged few
And work for all they're worth?
Why all those who reaped the benefits,
And not those once volunteered on earth.

HALL OF FAME

MAX HAWK, Yankton

The doors of the National Hall of Fame opened on June 27, 1996, and Max was inducted as a part of the inaugural class. Thirty veteran coaches from across the United States now represent the greatest of professions.

Criteria for selection into this distinguished group were years of service; championship years; winning percentage; awards and honors; and professional services.

“I was very honored and awed to be included with these great people. It was a very humbling experience to be in the company of so many of the nation’s finest teachers.”
