

2018 ASYA T-Ball (Instructional) Rules

Game time length – 55 minutes

No score keeping. We are here to teach the kids how to play ball.

No limit to the number of coaches on the field.

Offense:

- 3 live pitches “Coach Pitch”. If player is unable to connect on the 3rd pitch, they then get 2 swings off the “T”.
- Batting order, 1st batter through last batter, and next inning last through 1st.
- Bat whole line-up every inning then switch to defense.

Defense:

- On defense, only 5 players allowed in the infield. All others must be behind the base path.
- Pitcher must stay behind pitching mound with one foot in the pitching circle until ball is hit.
- Pitching mound is 25 feet from home plate.
- To stop the play or have time called:
 - Player must be making an attempt to get the ball in the pitching circle.
 - If the lead base runner stops, time will be called.
- Once time is called:
 - If base runner is past the half way mark, runner gets next base.
 - If runner has not made it to the half way mark, the runner goes back to last base.
- Overthrows – Base runner will be awarded one base.

Please be positive to all of our children, coaches, and umpires.
We're here to let the kids have fun and learn the game.