TWINS TO HOST 2025 MSHSBCA COACHES CLINIC

Event to take place from January 10-11, 2025 at Target Field

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, MN – The Minnesota Twins, in partnership with the Minnesota State High School Baseball Coaches Association, will host the annual MSHSBCA Coaches Clinic from January 10-11, 2025 at Target Field. The MSHSBCA's annual clinics date back to the 1970s; 2025 will mark the third year the event will be run in conjunction with the Twins and the third-straight year the event will be held at Target Field.

The two-day clinic provides coaches of all levels the opportunity to learn from and engage with renowned national voices from major league, college and high school baseball, with sessions ranging from technical fundamentals to leadership development and field maintenance. Clinic speakers include (subject to change): Twins President, Baseball Operations Derek Falvey; Twins Head Groundskeeper Larry DiVito; University of Minnesota Head Baseball Coach Ty McDevitt and Hitting Coach & Recruiting Coordinator Connor Gandossy; Auburn University Head Baseball Coach Butch Thompson; and MSHSBCA 1st Vice President Troy Urdahl.

The clinic is open to coaches of all levels; registration opens on November 15 at playballmn.com and closes January 6, 2025. Discount codes are available for youth coaches and MSHSBCA members, via the MSHSBCA Board and the Minnesota Twins Community Fund.
