

POWERS AND AUTHORITY

1. The USAW/NJ SGB (through its' members) is responsible for the Charitable Mission of USAW/NJ and must comply with the requirements of its tax-exempt status.
2. The SGB oversees the non-profits operations, manages its finances, is responsible to the by-laws, sets policy, makes major decisions for the for the non-profit, and, is legally responsible for USAW/NJ and its activities.
3. Due to the importance of each SGB position, all SGB councils, committees, ad hoc committees are required to email a copy of their minutes to each member of the SGB within 1 week of their meeting.
4. Some actions by the Councils and Committees need no further approval by the SGB. Some actions by the Councils and Committees should have approval by the SGB. SGB members necessarily must review minutes of the councils and committees to be sure the councils and committees are acting in the best interest of the SGB.