

Player's Code of Ethics

Shoreview Area Youth Baseball

Coached and parents have a responsibility to provide the best possible experience for youth baseball. However, the players also have certain responsibilities related to their participation. The Players Code of Ethics should be read and signed by each member of your team.

- I hereby pledge to be positive about my baseball experience and accept the responsibility for my participation by following the Player's Code of Ethics.
- I will encourage good sportsmanship from fellow players, coaches, officials and parents at every game and practice by demonstration good sportsmanship.
- I will attend every practice and game that I can, and will notify my coach if I cannot.
- I will expect to be treated fairly, and at minimum, receive the required amount of playing time in accordance with the defined playing rules.
- I will do my very best to listen and learn from my coaches.
- I will treat my coaches, other players, officials and fans with respect regardless of race, sex, creed, or abilities and I will expect to be treated accordingly.
- I deserve to have fun during my baseball experience and will alert my parents if it stops being fun!
- I deserve to play in an environment that is free of drugs, tobacco, and alcohol and expect adults to refrain from their use during Shoreview Area Youth Baseball games and practices.
- I will encourage my parents to be involved with my team in some capacity because it is important to me.
- I will do my very best in school.
- I will remember that baseball is an opportunity to learn and have fun.
