Article IV - Meetings

Section 1: Annual Meeting

There shall be an Annual Meeting of the Division at a date established by the Women's Division executive committee and announced at least 45 days in advance.

The timeframe for holding the Women's Division Annual Meeting is determined by the NWBA Bylaws.

Options for participants to attend in person and remotely must be provided.

a) In the event that only one candidate is running for any given office, that candidate must receive a vote of confidence by a majority of delegates present and voting. No candidates may be declared the winner by default.

~~b) Election of Officers will be conducted as the last order of business during the Annual Meeting.~~

Rationale for change:

Will be added in the final submission by 29th March
