Through visionary leadership and partnerships with local organizations, the Sharks Alumni Foundation aims to strengthen the Bay Area youth sports community and support other local causes. As former professional NHL hockey players, we know firsthand the many benefits of playing sports. In addition to building self-confidence, camaraderie, and learning the values of teamwork, commitment and determination, kids who play sports likely to do better on tests and in school. Kids who play sports of all types are less likely to become obese or start drugs. And, most importantly, playing sports is just plain fun!
