

Quad City Blues announce Head Coach!

The Quad City Blues Hockey Club is excited to announce the appointment of Dillon Fournier as Head Coach. Dillon is a native of Montreal, Quebec, where he grew up playing hockey at various levels including time in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League. In 2012 he was drafted 48th overall by the Chicago Blackhawks. He spent three years in the Blackhawks organization before retiring. Dillon also has experience developing players through previous coaching roles and player specific training. He has a passion for youth sports, community engagement, and developing young men and women into exceptional people.

Outside of hockey, Dillon enjoys traveling, spending time outdoors, and being with his wife Maurissa and their dog Pickles. Please give Dillon a warm Quad City Blues welcome as he joins our organization, excited to take on a new season in the MSHSL!

Thank you,
