8th Annual Celebration of Rugby!

The Ambassador of Australia, the Honorable Joe Hockey, commented that rugby is the fastest growing sport in the United States, and he spoke about the positive impacts that rugby has for both boys and girls. The event also celebrated Mateship, the 100 year relationship between Australia and the United States.

Winter Basketball Evaluations

Hey Winter Basketball Players!

Evaluations for currently registered players are coming up! You must be registered for Winter Basketball to participate in the evaluations.

The purpose of the evaluations is to form balanced teams. The evaluations take a relatively short time and give participating coaches the opportunity to see all the children signed up for their leagues. In this way they are better prepared to make player selections on the night of the draft.
