SEE YOU AT THE FARM!

Boys Soccer

What a game! This was the first time in all 33 years of the Jim Wolter Titan Invitational that the Varsity Soccer Team had reached back-to-back championships, but that wasn't enough for the Titans.

Glenbrook South faced the #14 ranked St. Patrick Shamrocks on Saturday morning for the Championship match. The Shamrocks took the lead with two goals in the first half. In an incredible comeback, the Titans were able to put three goals in the back of the net in the second half to win a repeat championship. Scoring for the Titans were Justin Leszynski, Julian Issar, and Jimmy McMahon. McMahon and Kyle Barda both earned assists in the victory.

In the earlier matches, the Titans defeated Rolling Meadows 1-0. Justin Leszynski scored off a McMahon assist. In the second match, the Titans beat Stevenson 2-0. Scoring for the Titans were Zach Ochab (assisted by McMahon) and McMahon (assisted by Issar).

In the third match, the Titans defeated Notre Dame 1-0. Justin Leszynski scored off a Jhovany Guadarrama assist. The Titans improved to an overall record of 4-0-1. They hope to continue their undefeated streak as they take on Highland Park and Deerfield before ending the week at the Morton Invitational in Central Illinois.

Sr. Defender Gavin Morse, Sr. Defender Kyle Barda, Jr. Midfielder Julian Issar, and So. Forward Justin Leszynski earned All-Tournament Team recognition. Senior Forward Jimmy McMahon was named Most Valuable Player of the Tournament.

Go Titans!

Girls Golf

The varsity girls golf team improved to 6-0 on the season.

GBS vs. Maine South at Mission Hills G.C.

On Monday, the GBS girls posted a score of 166 to Maine South's 184.

Hanna Tanaka led the team with a 37, Maria Perakis and Kaki Feerick shot a 40, and Olivia DeMattia shot a 49.

GBS vs. Evanston High School

On Weds., the GBS girls posted a score of 161 to Evanston's 172.

Maria Perakis led the team with a 33, followed by Hanna Tanaka's 35, Ysabella Arrojo's 45, and Olivia DeMattia and Kaki Feerick both recorded the team's fourth score of 48.

Go Titans!

Boys Golf

The GBS Varsity Boys Golf team started the week getting rained out vs Evanston.

They then hosted a B match versus New Trier JV and eked out a 160-162 victory. Sean Patel and Mac McGurn tied for low score with 39s. On Saturday, the team travelled to Buffalo Grove GC for a 20 team invite.

The boys placed 8th out of the 10 teams in the very competitive 'A' flight. The Titans shot 310 as a team, with Eric Yum (74), Aaron Chong (75) and Jack Upperman (79) leading the way.

The Titans will be hosting their Golf Fundraiser on September 19, with proceeds going to support the golf program, as well as a portion of the funds going to support the American Childhood Cancer Organization.

Football

In a game that was halted due to lightning, Glenbrook South lost to St. Patrick on the road Saturday night, 28-7. The Titans are 0-2.

"I thought that was a big, physical team," GBS head coach Dave Schoenwetter told the Glenview Lantern. "They tackled better and we executed decently on offense, we just didn't stay on blocks long enough. ... We just didn't make play when we needed to."

"We got into situations where we got to third down and let them get a first down," Schoenwetter said. "We let them do that one or two times, we're tired coming off the field."

Andrew Gall led the GBS runners with 36 rushing yards while Harry Panagakis added 30 yards and a six yard TD run, the Titans lone score.

"It's really hard," Schoenwetter said. "These guys are coming out and playing their first varsity game, either last week or some of them this week. To go up against a line that big and a team that's really physical, it's hard. But what I saw throughout the game is that some of those kids adapted to what they needed to. We're just not good enough to do it each down and those kids need to get stronger so they can finish those tackles when they get there."

"It's definitely not the start that we wanted," Schoenwetter said. "My hope right now is that we're building up a lot of confidence in the younger guys and that once our older guys are healthy, we're going to have some depth that we can build on. It's just been an unlucky series of events that we've started the season."

The Titans home opener is against Palatine on Friday, Sept. 7, at 7:30 p.m. Let's pack the stadium!

Girls Cross Country

The girls ran a great race at the John Kurtz Early Bird Invitational over the weekend. Kate Jortberg and Lauren Hayes had breakout performances despite the less than ideal weather on Saturday. Kate came in third place with a time of 18:32, and Lauren Hayes came in 14th place with a time of 19:11.

Going Beyond Sports

The girls are participating in a "workout buddy" program where they will work with special needs students in our community. The girls are meeting with their buddy twice a month to exercise at the YMCA with them. This program is a wonderful way to get our students involved in their community and engaged with special needs students in our area.

Alumni updates: Emily Noone is starting her cross country season at Marquette University! Her first meet is on September 8th at the Vic Godfrey Open and we can't wait to see what she will accomplish with her new cross country family.

Girls Field Hockey

The 5-0 Titans had two matches this week.

Traveling to Oak Park River Forest on Tuesday, the Titans dominated the entire match, getting out to a 2-0 lead and then waiting out an hour and 15 minute rain delay before winning 6-1.

This was the team's first win over OPRF in the varsity programs history.

MJ McNary played poised and under control and led us in the midfield. MJ scored two goals, both on penalty corners. Greer Bireley, Sarah Goose, Kyla Kachmarik and Belle Tiesi each tallied one goal apiece.

On Friday night in the stadium, the girls played Latin School of Chicago and came away with another dominating performance.

Controlling the pace of play and playing "Titan" Field Hockey, the girls won 5-1 behind Shannon Schmitt's 4 goal performance. Grace Marshall also scored a goal.

The Titans have one game this week on Wednesday at 4:30, traveling to Lake Forest Academy where they will silence the "cowbell."

Boys Cross Country

Boy's Cross Country is off to a strong start so far this year.

The varsity team beat GBN on Wednesday and then placed 5th out of 17 teams Saturday at the Crystal Lake South Invite. The Frosh/Soph team had a good run as well placing 2nd!

Top finishers at the varsity level were: Will Kelly (7th), Charlie Schultz (12th), Will Houser (13th), James Kurtzweil (47th) and Joey Pauletto (52nd). The Frosh/Soph team was lead by Brian Hildebrand (3rd), Harrison Wollney (5th), Dane Branstrom (12th), James Scott (18th), and Matt Finkel (19th).

Next up for us is the Wauconda Invite next weekend!

A dark blue hoodie with a white outline of the word "SOUTH" printed across the chest. The hoodie has a hood with drawstrings and a front kangaroo pocket. A small white tag with blue text is visible inside the collar.
