

The Super Cooper 5K & 1-Mile Race

2026

Since 2007, Cooper Life Fund has proudly supported our community through the annual Super Cooper 5K, raising funds to help more than 6,000 families whose newborns required unexpected care in the Terrebonne General Health System NICU. This impact has only been possible thanks to the generosity of our sponsors.

In 2026, we will celebrate the 20th Annual Super Cooper 5K & 1-Mile Race on Saturday, March 28, 2026—a milestone that reflects two decades of commitment, compassion, and community support.

We invite you to join our 20-Year Celebration as an event sponsor. All contributions are fully tax deductible. Sponsorship levels include:

- Platinum ($750+) – Premier logo placement on website (w/link) and logo/name in newspaper ad
- Gold ($500–$749) – Logo on race website (w/link) and name in newspaper ad
- Silver ($250–$499) – Name on race website and in newspaper ad
- Bronze ($100–$249) – Name on race website
- Door Prizes – Recognition aligned with the prize's value

To confirm your sponsorship, please contact John Fontenot at 985-258-5751 or you can simply mail the attached form with your contribution. We are grateful for any support you can provide.

Cooper Life Fund is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit dedicated to helping children born with medical conditions and promoting healthy lifestyles. The organization was founded by John and Ashley Fontenot after their son, Cooper, was born in 2004 with a congenital heart defect.
