- I am also happy to answer any questions you may have. Email: coachpage@chaparralfootball.com; I am all about open communication, but I am also just a volunteer so hopefully most questions can be answered through these channels we set up, especially on the website. -Coach Page

Team Culture

“Coach Them Hard. Love Them Harder.”

- Faith and Family come first. We will create an environment with love and focus on values. Players feel the love and closeness by us inviting it.
- Coaches make themselves vulnerable by sharing personal, relatable stories to players.
- Be positive but realistic.
- Extreme ownership. Take accountability for everything in your control.

“ALL IN”

- Buy into what is best for the team and the greater good.
- Be a part of something greater than yourself.
- Be selfless.
- Consistency. Do everything the right way.
- Academics. Integrity. Questionable Social Media.
- The one thing you can control is your effort. Don't have any regrets.

“WIN”

- Effort. Passion. Care because it matters to you and matters to others.
- Strive for greatness. Work to have a perfect season.
- Do your job. Beat the guy in front of you.
- Win. Win at practice. Win in workouts. Win in scrimmage. Win the game.

Expectations

- Players should have base playbook memorized by the end of June.
- Players should study for 15-20 minutes after each practice in June and as often as possible.
- Players should physically work on what they learn from zoom meetings (i.e. practice running pass routes, plays, fundamentals taught by coaches).
- Parents should hold players accountable by helping ensure that they do the above expectations.
