 - d) Baseball (Ernie LaBounty) – Interested in the dredging project and how it's going to affect Fort Hardy. People contacting about clinics in the past, but lack there is very minimal interest. There was little interest in Fall Ball and don't want to take from other sports. Ernie is leaving for Antarctica but will be back March 1 before baseball.
 - e) Softball (Katie Brunson) – Softball clinic has 5 to 6 kids going to it right now. Enjoying looking at it from the coaching perspective. Registration starting after the New Year.
 - f) Basketball (Ray Sickles) – 170 kids signed up. K-1 around 53 kids. Got new basketball for K-3 grades. 11 parents have signed up to help out for the young guys. Practice for K-1 is on Saturdays. Grades 2-3 around 42 kids. Marcy will be running that show. Maybe 4 weeks of practices and 4 weeks of games. Reversible jerseys and T-shirts are ordered. Grades 4-6 around 75 kids. All of the ADK league teams are full and a little spillover for boys so we can have an extra team to play other teams in the area.
