Boys Basketball

The Boys Varsity basketball team scored a huge upset over #2 ranked Evanston Friday night in the Titan Dome. Final score, 61-52.

Dominic Martinelli scored a career-high 34 points.

"We thought this is the year for us," Martinelli told the Glenview Lantern. "We thought this was the game we needed to win. This is a next-level win for us, and I'm proud of the team."

"For us, this is new territory," head coach Phil Ralston said. "We told the kids, sometimes you weather the storm against a good team."

"We could not have been in this place last year," Ralston said. "Our kids had not had the maturity with the system that we run, and how we're going to play to be able to step into a game like this and win. This year they were."

The Titans beat Conant Saturday at home, 65-40. Jimmy McMahon and Martinelli had 15 points each for the Titans.

The Titans are now 6-0 on the season.

Next up, Nile North at 7 p.m., Friday, Dec. 7, in the Titan Dome.
