The room block you have secured with Pse is considered a courtesy room block. Pse maintains the right to evaluate your room block and reduce the number of rooms in the room block at any time. We evaluate all group blocks for the event periodically and may reduce the number of rooms in your room block for one of the following reasons, but not limited to:

1. Low room pickup within the room block
2. High demand for rooms from other groups
3. Zero rooms booked
4. Booking multiple room blocks at different hotels

Complimentary rooms: Guests who "may" receive a complimentary room from their hotel, will still be responsible, if applicable, for paying the booking deposit charged by tournamenthotels.com / Pse Event Housing which would have occurred at the time the reservation was booked. (booking deposits will not be refunded for complimentary rooms).
