6. Format and Advancement:

Four Team Bracket: All teams will play each other (3 games). Top two point totals will play again in a Final Five Team Bracket: All teams will play each other in a "round robin format" (4 games). All games in a five team bracket will be mini-game length. Final standings based upon points. (No semis or final). 1st place goes to the team with the most points and 2nd place goes to the team with the second-highest points.

Six Team Group: Teams will play two (2) group games. Top 4 will play a semifinal 5 and 6 seed will play a consolation. Winners of the semifinal will compete in a final.

Seven Team Group: play two group games, then seeded #1-#7, #1 passes to Semi Final, all other games #2v#7, #3v#6 and #4v#5 will playoff to reach semis. Semis will consist #1v winner of 4v5 other semi will be winner of #3v6 V #2v7 for the final.

Eight Team Group: Teams are split into two brackets of four teams. Teams play the other teams within their bracket (3 games). The top two teams in each bracket will then play crossover semi-finals with the other bracket (A1 vs B2, B1 vs A2). Semi-final winners will play a final.

If Quarter-Final or Semi-Final games end in a tie, IFAB "kicks" from the penalty spot will be taken to determine the winner. If final games end in a tie, two (2) overtime halves will be played, and if the game is still tied at the end of the second overtime period, IFAB "kicks" from the penalty spot will be taken to determine the winner.

7. The NTSSA scoring system for mini games will be as follows:

- A. 6 points for a win
- B. 3 points for a tie
- C. 0 points for a loss
- D. 1 point per goal scored in the game with a maximum of 3
- E. 1 point for a shut out (not allowing opponent to score)
- F. A forfeit game will be scored at a 3-0 win in calculating mini-games points for tiebreaker determination.

8. Tiebreakers:

If two or more teams are tied in points after their mini games are completed, the following tiebreaker procedures will be used to determine the team advancing:

- A. Head to Head game results - winner will advance.
- B. Most Goals Scored - team with most goals scored will advance.
- C. Goal differential - team with highest goal differential against opponents will advance.
Goal differential = goals scored - goals against.
- D. Most number of "shut-outs" - team with most "shut-outs" will advance.
- E. Least number of goals conceded ("shut-outs") - team with most "shut-outs" will advance.
- F. Fewest accumulation of caution points, 1 point for yellow and 2 points for red.
- G. Penalty kicks.

These tiebreaker procedures will be applied, in order, to the teams tied in points until one team is selected for advancement. In the event that a team is scheduled to play teams have already played each other, the tournament director has the authority to re-align the playoff format.

9. Each team must have a minimum of seven (7) players on the field to start the game. There must be a minimum of seven (7) to continue the game.

10. Recreational teams - There will be NO recreational brackets available.

12. There will be free substitution, with the referee's consent, at the following times:

- A player receiving a yellow card (the player carded only)
- Prior to a throw-in for the team in possession only
- Prior to a goal kick
- After a goal by either team
- After an injury, when the referee stops the play
- At half time by either team
- In case of extreme heat, at the referee's discretion

13. Any send-offs should be reported to the Tournament Committee immediately following the game. Any player or coach sent-off shall automatically sit out the next played tournament game with their team (unless the send-off occurred in the last game of the tournament for that player or coach, in which case such player or coach would be required to sit out their next scheduled game played). If the send-off was for fighting, or if it is the player's second tournament send-off, the player will be suspended from the remainder of the tournament. Any player receiving three (3) cautions (yellow cards) in the tournament must sit out the next played tournament game with their team (unless the third caution occurred in the last game of the tournament for that player or coach, in which case such player or coach would be required to sit out their next scheduled game played). The NTSSA Cup & Games Committee has the right to hold a hearing and increase the suspension at its discretion. If a player is sent off in a match as the result of two yellow cards, they will not need to sit out the next match.

14. All referee decisions are final. No protests will be allowed, except for ineligible player.

15. Academy teams playing 7v7 and 9v9 have NO build out lines and CAN punt the ball, and WILL have offsides. No Headers allowed, See "Heading Rule" below.

17. Competitive 11U will play 9V9 (including goalkeeper) throw-ins and off sides. No Headers allowed, See "Heading Rule" below.

18. 12U Competitive will have the option to play 9V9 (including Goalkeeper) format, or 11V11 (including goalkeeper) format. Throw-ins and off sides will apply to both formats. 11v11 format will be played on a full sized field with full sized goals. Ball will remain a size 4. Heading is allowed in both formats.

19. 13U thru 19U will play 11V11 (including goalkeeper) throw-ins and off sides. A player may only be on one roster.

20. HEADING RULE: Players in the U11 programs and younger shall not engage in heading, either in practice or in games. Per US Soccer Referee Program – How the rule should be implemented: "When a player deliberately heads the ball in a game, an indirect free kick (IFK) should be awarded to the opposing team from the spot of the offense. If the deliberate header occurs within the goal area, the indirect free kick should be taken on the goal area line parallel to the goal line at the point nearest to where the infringement occurred. If a player does not deliberately head the ball then play should continue."

21. The Chairman of Cup & Games, tournament director, or their designee, is empowered to make all decisions regarding the competition during the tournament.

22. The decision of the Chairman of Cup & Games or Tournament Director is final in all matters. No appeals will be allowed beyond that point.

23. In the event the referee or linesmen are missing from the field, report immediately to your Field Coordinator. If a game is played into the second half but is stopped short of full time, other than acts on the part of one of the teams, the game shall be considered complete. Post group games, if tied will be determined by the tiebreaker procedure.

24. In the event of inclement weather, format for tournament play and/or completion of the tournament will be determined by the tournament committee.

25. INTENTIONALLY OMITTED

26. Any team that withdraws from a tournament less than one week from the start of the tournament or does not complete all required scheduled games, may not be allowed to enter any sanctioned tournaments until said team appears before the NTSSA Cup & Games Committee for a hearing explaining their actions and will forfeit their entry fee and performance bond, if one has been posted

27. All teams not accepted by the tournament will be refunded in full within 10 days of the notification of rejection, or notification to the teams accepted, whichever comes first. (Posting on web sites can be considered notification of teams accepted).

28. In case of rain - HARD RAIN, NOT A SPRINKLE - call the headquarters and/or visit the web site before you leave for the game. If inclement weather cancels the tournament prior to the completion of a team's first scheduled game of the tournament, a maximum of fifty percent (50%) of the team's entry fee may be retained by the tournament to cover start-up cost of the tournament.
