Master of Ceremonies: - Lynette Sjoquist

Guest Speaker - Laura Halldorson

Laura is a former Athena Award winner, and the first women's hockey coach at the U of M. A graduate of Wayzata H.S. where she was a three-sport athlete in volleyball, basketball, and hockey. Laura graduated from Princeton University where she played four years of hockey and won three Ivy League titles. She played for the U.S. National Women's Hockey Team in 1987 and spent seven years as head coach at Colby College before heading to the U of M. Her teams appeared in eight NCAA tournaments and won three national championships. She was named the American Hockey Coaches Association's Division I coach of the year on three occasions. She was inducted in the Minnesota's Girls Hockey Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2014. In January 2023, Laura became the first female to receive State of Hockey Legacy Award from the Minnesota Wild.
