

Mario SERVIN

STAFF COACH

Mario Servin is a homegrown player and coach from the Houston area. He has played under current staff members and is a product of Albion Hurricanes FC player development. Mario played in the premier league in Houston and was selected to play for the South Texas ODP team for several years making the regional team.

Mario has graduated from the University of Houston Clear Lake with a bachelor in Human Performance and Fitness and is currently pursuing a PHD in physical therapy.