Memipro Skills Course

CYSA is teaming up with Memipro to offer a 4-week skills course to all players interested in taking their skill to another level! Memipro was founded by Haris Memisevic, a 22-year-old professional soccer player in Europe & UEFA "B" licensed.

This 4-week course gives players the chance to work on their footwork in the offseason. It will challenge all players, while being a fun learning environment.

---

---

Memisevic is heading back to Europe at the end of January to continue his season playing. This training is being offered to all CYSA players between the ages of 9 and 13. Spots are limited; and are filling up fast!
