The fall season began with the Colorado Huskers as slight favorites to repeat as fall champs. They did not disappoint. This is back to back fall league titles for the team. Behind captains Mario Lopez and league MVP Artie Barcelo, the Huskers marched through the regular season with an undefeated 7-0 record. Victories against Menace in the semi's and CTS in the finals put the Huskers on top for their second Pro League crown. Congratulations to the Colorado Huskers, the 2020 Fall League PF3 Pro Division Champions.

2020 PF<sub>3</sub> PRO DIVISION FINAL WRAP

AURORA COLORADO • 11.01.20

WRITEUP BY MICHEAL PARFITT – COLORADO FLAG FOOTBALL CORNER

GAME DAY 11.01.20

PLAY IN GAME 1: CTS 28 • MILE HIGH BUILT 00

Getting the playoffs going were two play in games that put #3 seed CTS against #6 seed Mile High Built and #4 seed Rockers vs #5 seed Menace. CTS looked to be on a mission as they handled Mile High Built with ease. They would advance on the strength of a 28 to 0 win. MHB had all sorts of issues trying to slow down sack master Mike Timm. On the offensive side CTS was equally impressive. Duece Richardson guided his offense with precision. With CTS coming away with the win they would get an hour off before facing off against the Bulls in the semi-final round.

PLAY IN GAME 2: COLORADO MENACE 20 • DENVER ROCKERS 14

The other play in game was a far more closely contested affair. The Rockers would jump out to a lead in the first half but could not quite hold on as Menace were able to tie things up before regulation ended. With the score tied, the game went into the new overtime rules. Menace would get the ball first and scored on a jet sweep from Malcolm Whye. With the pressure on the Rockers and needing to answer, Pat's final pass was just out of reach and fell incomplete, sealing the Rockers fate as Menace moved on to face the Huskers.

SEMI FINAL 1: CTS 21 • BULLS 07

The first semifinal game put the #2 seeded Bulls against #3 seed CTS. Before the game even began, the Bulls had offensive lineman Matt Atkins get hurt during pregame warm-ups. CTS would get the scoring started with a touchdown reception by lineman Mike Lanford. Mitch Colin only caught two passes in the game, but those two receptions were for big time touchdowns. Not everything went CTS's way in this game as Mike Uribe racked up three sacks and forced a couple of holding penalties. The Bulls could not find any answers to CTS's defense until late in the game. Another contributing factor was the loss of Marvin Kinsey during the game. Mike Timm would only come up with one sack but created all sorts of pressure throughout the game. In the end, CTS exacted revenge on the Bulls for their week one loss. CTS would now have to wait to see if they would be playing Menace or Huskers in the championship game.

SEMI FINAL 2: COLORADO HUSKERS 20 • COLORADO MENACE 06

The first half of the Huskers vs Menace game was very defensive and appeared as though the score would be all tied at zero at half until Dez Burks returned a red zone interception for six. Menace was able to drive the ball in the first half but just could not punch it into the endzone. The Huskers would add another six on a 63-yard touchdown pass from Artie Barcelo to Devante Hill. Menace would get back in the game on a 10-yard touchdown from Jesse Eaton to Marcus Crowder. The Huskers wound up getting an insurance touchdown from an 8-yard Artie run. The final score in this one was Huskers 20 Menace 6.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Championship game had no shortage of talent in the field as the Huskers would face CTS. The Huskers would get things going with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Artie to Devante Hill again. CTS's offense found moving the ball against the Huskers defense to be quite difficult. The Huskers defense played technically sound ball in the championship, so much so that picking a defensive MVP was difficult until Scotty Phillips came up with a big-time sack on the second half of the game. Scotty had a ton of QB pressures but only mustered the one sack in the game. On offense Artie Barcelo would earn another offensive MVP award for his three touchdown passes that helped propel the Huskers to the win. This win makes the Huskers one of four teams to go undefeated in a PF3 season. Congratulations to the Huskers

We'd heard the rumors for a while, but they were always just rumors. "When is Swift coming back?" In the fall of 2020, Team Swift returned. Because of the absence, Swift had to take care of the Comp League first. They welcomed the challenge. The regular season wasn't an issue, as they entered the playoffs as the number one seed. On a beautiful playoff Sunday, Swift continued to shine. Behind QB Julian Banks, and defensive captain Dwayne Autry, they took care of Kryptonite and VIP in dominating fashion. Team Swift will enter the 2021 Spring season as a legit contender in the Pro Division. Congratulations to Team Swift, the PF3 2020 Fall League Comp Division champions.

2020 PF<sub>3</sub> COMP DIVISION FINAL WRAP

AURORA COLORADO • 11.01.20

WRITEUP BY MICHEAL PARFITT – COLORADO FLAG FOOTBALL CORNER

GAME DAY 11.01.20

PLAY IN GAME 1: DENVER CHIEFS 13 • DISCIPLES 07

The Comp playoffs ended up going as many had anticipated it would. Getting things started was the Chiefs against the Disciples. The last time these two faced each other the Chiefs came away with a decisive win. This time around, the Disciples put the game in question and made it a closer one. They had a good opportunity to come away with an upset win if it wasn't for their old nemesis... the snap. The Disciples were down to their (eventually) third string center and it was apparent with each missed snap. Even though this was not the Chiefs best game they did manage to pull out the win. They would set up a rematch against VIP in the semifinal round.

PLAY IN GAME 2: KRYPTONITE 26 • MILE HIGH EMPIRE 06

In the next play in game, Kryptonite come away with the 26 to 6 win against Empire and a chance to play against Swift in the semi-finals. Kryptonite's offense, led by Kyle Gallup moved the ball well in this one, with Gallup throwing 2 TD's and adding a 50+ yard rushing TD as well. The defense even got in on the scoring with a pick-6 late in the game by Eeland Stribling. With the momentum rolling into the Swift game, Kryptonite had high hopes of pulling the ultimate upset and playing for a championship.

SEMI FINAL 1: VIP 07 • DENVER CHIEFS 06

Once again, the Chiefs and VIP came down to the wire in a defensive battle. Both teams traded short drives back and forth with the defenses holding up. The play that started the scoring was a one-handed pick six by Russell Curtis for VIP. Chiefs would answer back with a scoring drive of their own and convert the PAT making it a 7-6 game. With only a few moments left in the game, VIP would get the victory on a touchdown run by QB Juan Gallegos. This win by VIP set up a rematch against Swift.

SEMI FINAL 2: TEAM SWIFT 26 • KRYPTONITE 06

The Kryptonite/ Swift semi-final game ended up with a 26-6 score as well, however Kryptonite was on the other end of the score. The Swift pass rushers were in Kyle Gallup's face all game long, just creating mayhem, making it easy for the Swift DB's to sit on the short routes. While the defense was doing what they do, Julian Banks and the Swift offense were almost scoring at will as well. While Kryptonite put up a valiant effort, Swift was just too talented of a team and cruised their way into the Championship game.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

With the sun setting on a long day of football, VIP and Swift ran it back for the right to a Pro division invite and a well-deserved Comp Division trophy. With the ball first, Swift made short work of the VIP defense on their first drive, scoring on a long 50+ yard Julian Banks TD run. VIP's first few drives stalled out and Swift scored again just before half, making it 13-0 Swift. The second half was better for VIP, getting on the board with a long Juan Gallegos TD throw to make it a game. Julian came up clutch with a touchdown pass late in the game to seal the victory for Swift, 19-6. With 3 total touchdowns scored, Julian banks is you Championship game Offensive MVP and Dwayne Autry grabbed the defensive MVP by also grabbing 2 interceptions. Congratulations to Swift and the league looks forward to seeing you potentially compete for a championship in the Pro division next spring.

2020 PF<sub>3</sub> FALL LEAGUE MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

SELECTED BY PF<sub>3</sub> COMMITTEE

For the 2nd consecutive season, Artie Barcelo has earned the Most Valuable Player award. "The player who contributes the most to his/her team's success." He has been described as a pure force of will. That is pretty accurate. Artie led the Huskers to a 7-0 regular season record. He also marched his way to consecutive Atlas Awards as well given to the league's best statistical QB. Artie continues to set the standard for all QB's in this league, in this state, and maybe even the entire nation if you ask some. A player that even some would say is still improving as a quarterback, there truly is only one "Ghost". Congratulations to Artie for this honor.

"GOLIATH" PLAYER AWARD

TOP LINEMAN - VOTED FOR BY THE PF<sub>3</sub> COMMITTEE

This is the inaugural season of the Goliath Award for the best Offensive lineman in the PF3 Pro Division. It is only fitting that the first time this is given, it goes to Mason Barrett or the Bulls. He is the epitome of what you look for in a blocking big guy. The footwork... his first two steps in a pass set are the exact same (which they should be), followed up by one of the best two-handed punches in the league. Consistency is the one of the main key's to be a good offensive lineman and game in and game out, he plays at a high level. All of these are all reasons why Mason has been voted an All-Pro by his peers every single season the that award's inception. Congratulations Mason, well deserved sir.

"ATLAS" PLAYER AWARD

PRO DIVISION TOP STATISTICAL QUARTERBACK

For the 7th, yes, 7th time, Artie Barcelo has won the Atlas Award given to the league's top statistical quarterback. Throwing for 1572 yards and 25 touchdowns, not to mention rushing for 565 yards and 4 touchdowns, Artie showed that he is still the top QB in one of the nation's top leagues. A player that truly plays with zero fear and the heart of a champion, Artie will look to lead the Huskers to another Pro Division title.

"PRIMETIME" PLAYER AWARD

PRO DIVISION TOP STATISTICAL OFFENSIVE PLAYER (OTHER THAN QUARTERBACK)

We have a familiar face gracing the Primetime Player Award in Antoine Kelly. Actually, Kelly is so familiar with this award, it may need to be renamed at this point to the Antoine Kelly Primetime Player Award. He's won this award 6 times, four more than the next guy with only one guy winning it more than once. That speaks to this man's dominance as an offensive player. With 29 receptions, 465 yards and 10 TD's, his knack for getting in to the endzone is truly the reason he continues to win the award. Congratulations on the award Antoine, it's truly deserved.

PRO DIVISION TOP STATISTICAL DEFENSIVE PLAYER

Ricky Peterson is your Ironman Award winner for the fall 2020 PF3 Season. There were multiple people in the running for this award going into the last week and Ricky came up clutch with 2 INT's in the final game to put over the top. He led the league with 27 flag pulls and 5 INT's, 3 passes defended and 1 defensive score of and interception. His nose for the football has to come from playing on both sides of the ball at a high level. Ricky will look to keep his stellar play going in the fall season playoffs this weekend with the Rockers looking to add the elusive PF3 Pro Division Trophy. Congratulations to you, Ricky.

"TITAN" PLAYER AWARD

PRO DIVISION - MOST SACKS REGULAR SEASON

This season we had a 3-way tie for the Titan Award. Offense's beware as Dajuan Thomas, Mike Timm and Mike Uribe all finished the season with 12 sacks and likely all would have had more had it not been for a blizzard on the last week of the season. These guys have all challenged for this award in the past and are known game wreckers. Their talent is hard to game plan for and offenses need to just try to slow them down. Each one of these guys win their matchups in different ways but are equally effective. Congratulations to this trio of monster pass rushers.

Good luck in the playoffs this weekend, we all know where you'll be on the field.

2020 PF<sub>3</sub> PRO DIVISION • ALL PRO TEAM

The year of 2020 brought us many curveballs. Through all of it, we were still able to have successful summer and fall football seasons with a national tournament squeezed in between. It was definitely a blessing. The talent continues to get better as teams show up hungrier and the standards rise. The PF3 championship trophy is the pinnacle of the mountain we are all climbing.

The PF3 started in the fall of 2013. Seven years later, a new generation of talent has arrived to play alongside, and against, some of the veterans still making noise. It is a pleasure to introduce the Fall 2020 PF3 All-Pro Team. This is the fourth season we have named an All-Pro team. Like every season, there were the mainstays, the names you would expect and there were the newcomers, the "young-bloods". This is the first season an honorable mention team was named. With the rising talent came more players that needed to be recognized for their accomplishments. Much appreciation to the six players from the league that helped name this team.

This year's All-Pro team saw five players make it for the fourth consecutive season. Primetime Award winner Antoine Kelly made it 4 for 4, as he led the list of receivers that gave headaches to defenses around the league. Mitch Colin was also named for the fourth straight season. Rounding out the list at wide receiver was Ricky Peterson (3rd selection), Marcus Crowder (3rd selection), and first timers Malcolm Whye and Marvin Kinsey. The league's most valuable player and Atlas Award winner, QB Artie Barcelo, was of course named an All-Pro for the 3rd time. Along with Artie, David Knighton of the Bulls was named to the team for the first time. Leading the seasons All-Pro offensive line was the Bulls Mason Barrett. Not only was this Mason's fourth consecutive selection, he was also the inaugural Goliath Award winner. The All-Pro team welcomed back Tanner Svejcar (2nd selection) from his knee injury last fall. First timers Matt Atkins and Nathan Grooms completed these seasons All Pro offensive line. The All-Pro offensive athlete was Anthony Murray from the Bro's (2nd selection). The ability to have talent to play QB and WR made Anthony a true dual threat. This season, Paul Bailey (2nd selection) of the Huskers almost single-handedly created this next position. An All-Pro at the hybrid position, Paul showed us how dangerous an offensive threat can be as a center.

2020 PF<sub>3</sub> PRO DIVISION • ALL PRO TEAM

The 2 four-timers on defense both played defensive back. Jason Davis made a list for the fourth time showing that he still has plenty of game left to play. Jordan Williams was also named for the fourth consecutive season as he continues to show he is one of, if not THE top cover corners in the league. Next on the list was Iron Man award winner Ricky Peterson. This was Ricky's first selection as a defensive back. Ricky was joined by three more first timers: Corey Sample of the Bulls, and both starting outside corners for the Huskers, Dez Burks and Antonio Smith. This set of DB's would be fun to watch against any set WR's in the nation. The defensive line was an easy foursome to choose. Mike Timm (3rd selection), Dajuan Thomas (2nd selection), and Mike Uribe (2nd selection) tied for the league lead in sacks sharing the Titan award with Mario Lopez (3rd selection) finishing only one sack behind. This group of defensive linemen might be the most talented All-Pro d-line team yet. Scott O'Hara (3rd selection) showed that he is quite possibly the best pure LB in the game. Two more players made the list for the first time in the Huskers Marcel Knight, whose ball hawking skills made him the league's top safety, and Dantjer Gordon, the All-Pro defensive athlete this season. Dantjer was a game changer as both a blitzzer and a defensive back.

The honorable mention team is not overlooked. On offense, QB Duece Richardson returned from injury to lead CTS to a runner-up finish this fall season. At wide receiver, Anthony Rankin and Jerrad Burdick continued to produce in the Rockers high-octane offense. CJ Lovett continued his consistent topflight play. Ray Whittiker scored touchdowns at a high rate, Tommy Hilbert quietly had a solid season and Gerry Butler of FOE introduced himself to the Pro Division. The offensive line was a wall of protection led by Carlos Romero, Dane Robinson, Dylan Clahar and James Diegel. The honorable mention offensive hybrid player this season was Dalton Hooks of CTS. Rounding out the offensive team was athlete Andres "Country" Lane.

The honorable mention defensive team was quite talented. Broderick Sargent, Scotty Phillips, Moses Oliveros and Joe Gallegos show that the depth of quality pass rushers in this league is improving. Defensive backs Josh Morris, DJ Stelly, Aaron Laborde, Marcel Redd, Tony Mancuso, and Isaiah Foster all showed the ability to cover the best wide receivers in the game. Thomas Newton was named defensive honorable mention athlete this fall. The safety position went to Jason Davis, who was asked to step in for a few games and did not miss a beat.

Congratulations to the seasons all pro and honorable mention team. The talent is only getting better.
