COMPREHENSIVE GENERAL LIABILITY:

Question:

What does the OVA liability policy cover?

Answer:

It would be lengthy to list all the insuring agreements under the policy, but in many cases inquiries relate to the concept of Liability Insurance. General Liability insurance is designed to protect a registered member of OVA against legal responsibility arising out of a negligent act, or failure to act as a prudent person would have acted, which results in bodily injury or property damage to another party.

Question:

What activities are covered under the OVA liability policy?

Answer:

Only OVA sanctioned events for OVA members are covered under the liability policy.

Question:

Answer:

Yes, if the Club is registered for the current season with the OVA. Also, all individuals attending the tryouts must be registered in MRS with at least a tryout player role.

Question:

Does the OVA liability policy provide insurance for practices and training games vs. non-OVA teams?

Answer:

Yes, if the practice and/or training games are run by a Club that is registered for the current season with the OVA. Please note: Sport Accident coverage will not extend to non-OVA members attending the practices.

Question:

Do I need additional insurance for any tournaments that I host independent of the OVA and not sanctioned by the OVA.

Answer:

No, if the tournament is run by an OVA Club registered for the current season with the OVA and only OVA teams are participating.

If non-OVA teams are participating, all non-member coaches must meet the mandatory eligibility requirements for OVA coaches per the OVA Coach Eligibility Policy in order for the event to be covered by OVA insurance. These requirements include at a minimum:

- Abiding by the OVA Screening Policy
