Date	Item	Who	Notes and Deliverables
1/6/25	Coaches meeting and Coach resources	Dan Welch	Initial David Vendetti meeting lasted over an hour. David and Pat have been working on increasing resources for coaches to use. Tips and tricks for managing teams as the season goes along. Hoping to engage a couple of experienced coaches to speak about their experiences and the learning curve. There was a question about bringing the Coaches Corner link back to the website. Pros and cons to listing resources there vs. easy email blast for increased visibility.
	Squad Locker	Jen	$1300 sold to date- 15 orders in total. Personal experience- easy ordering, versatility and quick turnaround time. Logo wasn't compatible with some of the gear, casco bay logo (block letters) will be added by Jen Okay to publicize with teams- message will be sent to TAs
	Trademark Update	Pat	Which logos do we want to trademark? Pat needs a copy of the logo. The process should take about 3 weeks. $300 per logo
	Tier IV Update	Megan V	January Tier IV Update

	Goalie	Marc	GDS is going well. Participating has been great. We continue to hope GDS finds a new location in the Portland area by next summer. Goalie coaches are at a majority of practices at every level. 3/17 try-outs 2023- developed 13 Tier IV Squirt goalies. All of those goalies have transitioned to higher tiered teams. Marc plans to reach out to goalies that have transitioned to see how things are going for them
	Tournaments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Icicle ● Lep Cup 	Bryna Matt C	Icicle- Working hard to recruit more teams. 10 teams registered for 5 divisions. (5 are casco teams) Committee meeting tmw- working on organizing, recruiting sponsors, requesting donations, etc Lep Cup- registration will be on the website by the 3rd week in Jan.- Currently in the planning stages. Jen has passed the reins and all of her knowledge, materials to a new organizer. Interested teams have already been inquiring about registration.
	Outstanding Action Items-	Matt C	The nets have all been moved to their final destinations.
	Open Items		Jayson- travel updates- try out planning in process.
