

PLAYER CODE OF CONDUCT

At Buckingham United Soccer Club, we strive to help players grow as athletes, teammates, and leaders. This Player Code of Conduct is a guide to the standards of behavior and sportsmanship expected from all players.

As a Buckingham United Player, I WILL:

- Show respect to my coaches, teammates, referees, opponents, and spectators.
 - Arrive on time and ready to participate in all training sessions, games, and team meetings.
 - Give my best effort in all club activities and stay committed to improving.
 - Maintain a positive attitude and encourage my teammates.
 - Follow the instructions of my coaches and be open to feedback.
 - Take care of my uniform, equipment, and facilities.
 - Represent my team and club with pride, both on and off the field.
 - Report any inappropriate or unsafe behavior to a trusted adult.

As a Buckingham United Player, I WILL NOT:

- Talk back to coaches, referees, or club officials.
- Use foul, insulting, or disrespectful language.
- Engage in bullying, teasing, or exclusion of others.
- Argue with referees or question their calls during games.
- Post negative or harmful content about my team, teammates, coaches, or the club online.

- Miss training or matches without communication or valid reason.

Player Responsibility

- I understand that being a part of Buckingham United Soccer Club means committing to my team and contributing positively to the club culture.
 - I will follow all team rules, club policies, and the Code of Conduct at all times.
 - I know that my actions affect my teammates, my team's success, and my reputation.

Consequences

Violating this Code of Conduct may result in:

- Verbal or written warnings
- Temporary suspension from practices or games
- Removal from the team or the club for serious or repeated offenses
