Challenge Alaska Presents:

RETRO FILM NIGHTS

Bear Tooth Theatrepub

Challenge Alaska is teaming up with Bear Tooth Theatrepub for two nights of throwback movie magic this spring! These special screenings bring together community, nostalgia, and plenty of laughter while raising funds to support adaptive sports and therapeutic recreation programs across Alaska.

With two showings and more than 500 attendees expected, your sponsorship will help raise critical funds that empower Alaskans living with disabilities while giving your business visibility in front of a passionate, engaged audience.

- Venue: Bear Tooth Theatrepub, Anchorage
- Dates: May 7, 2026
- Expected Attendance: 500+ total viewers
- Films: Happy Gilmore at 5:30pm & Liar Liar at 8:30pm
- Vibe: "Alrighty then!" meets "The price is wrong, Bob!"— retro themed prizes and high-energy fun!

Why Sponsor?

Retro Film Nights are a fun and memorable way to connect with the community that supports Challenge Alaska. Sponsors receive recognition on the big screen, from the stage, and throughout the venue, with added perks like booth seating and social media shout outs at higher levels. Your support helps make Challenge Alaska's mission possible, empowering individuals with disabilities through adaptive sports, therapeutic recreation, and inclusive outdoor experiences that reach hundreds of Alaskans each year.
