

BOTTOM LINE'S WIN STREAK ENDS AT 3, AS THEY SPLIT WITH HARDWAY

GAME 1

THE HARDWAY were down to their final out. They were trailing 4-3 with 2 outs and nobody on base. Abe Dweck was the batter, and he had only one thing on his mind - tying the game with a homerun. In a blink of an eye Abe Dweck crushed a 90 mile per hour fastball and was racing around the bases with a game tying solo homer! But BOTTOM LINE was not be outdone. They showed everyone that they had a flair for dramatics too. In the bottom of the 7th inning with a man on 1st and 2 outs, Bobby (Wheels) Kassin rocked a moon shot over the blue monster in left field to win the game 5-4. Abe Cohen continued his torrid hitting going 5 for 5 for the day, bringing his league leading batting average to .722! -- What has he been eating??

THE RIGHT ONES END 3 GAME LOSING STREAK WITH SPLIT OF TWIN BILL AGAINST MOE KNOWS

MIKE MISHAAN'S DRAMATIC HOMERUN IN 10TH INNING WINS 1ST GAME

GAME 1

If you missed this game, you missed THE game of the decade! MOE KNOWS entered the bottom of the 7th inning trailing by 3 runs. The first two batters were retired easily and the fans started leaving the field and were headed towards the parking lot. But before you can say "May 26, 1991 is Cap Day!", Moe Levy and Chas Anteby hit back to back singles. Harry Cahon promptly smacked a R.B.I. double to make the score 8-6 and put the tying runs in scoring position. It was all up to Meyer (Donut) Assoulin. Meyer didn't waste any time as he ripped a 2 R.B.I. double to tie the game and send it into extra innings. In the 9th inning THE RIGHT ONES took a 9-8 lead via a R.B.I. triple by Ike Yedid. But MOE KNOWS struck again! With 2 outs and a man on 1st, Harold (H) Shamah roped a gametying R.B.I. triple to knot the game at 9-9. The following inning Mike (Muscle Man) Mishaan made this game history by cracking a dramatic solo homerun.

GAME 2

Somebody forgot to notify MOE KNOWS that there was another game to be played. While MOE KNOWS were busy celebrating the first game's wild victory, THE RIGHT ONES were playing the 2nd game with revenge on their minds. On May 26, 1991 (Memorial Day Weekend), THE LEAGUE will be celebrating its second annual CAP DAY!! Every fan attending the games will receive a free baseball cap courtesy of the Deal Softball League. Make sure you mark this date on your calendar - you wouldn't want to miss out on all the excitement! P.S. This year we're giving out REAL baseball caps.

SCANDALOUS COVER UP EXPOSED!!! SCOREKEEPER ON TRIAL FOR FALSIFYING STATS

There was something all wrong about last Sunday's games (5/15/91). You could just smell it in the air. Something seemed to be missing. Probably because last week was the first time Nathan Tawil wasn't at the field keeping score. Where was Nathan??

Well, despite the Deal Softball League's efforts to keep this matter a secret, our Deal Newsletter's investigative reporters unveiled the biggest coverup since Watergate!

On Monday, May 13th, 1991, Nathan Tawil, last season's score keeper of the year, was tried in court by the Deal Softball League. The league brought charges against Nathan for doctoring statistics and accepting bribes. The league claimed they had proof that Nathan gave certain players extra base hits to improve their batting average in exchange for money.

When the league was asked what kind of proof they had concerning Nathan improving batting averages for money, they had this to say: "It seems very suspicious that last year's leading hitter shared the same name as this score keeper, and they are first cousins." (Nathan Tawil of the Bahama Mamas won last season's batting title with an incredible .654 average.)

Nathan's first response to all of these allegations were "No comment, get out of my face before I kick you!" Nathan's lawyer, Abe Adelman is denying all charges and is countersuing the Deal Softball League for libel. The league and Nathan's lawyer agreed that only one man had the necessary expertise to judge this case fairly and swiftly. That man was none other than Fay Vincent - the Major League baseball commissioner. Fay Vincent flew in to review this case the same day he was contacted.

Fay Vincent did not emerge from his office for 4 days. He was looking over all the scorebooks from last season, and he was interviewing players, umpires, fellow scorekeepers, and neighbors. On May 20, 1991, Fay Vincent emerged from his office and declared the case solved. The following was Mr. Vincent's decision: "This verdict was a very difficult one for me. I find Nathan Tawil innocent of all charges brought up against him. However from this day on Nathan Tawil can not be a scorekeeper for this league. I feel that to keep the integrity of the game, and to keep the league's reputation as a just and wholesome organization, I must bar Nathan from scorekeeping. For Nathan's cooperation with this investigation he will be rewarded with his own weekly column in the Deal Newsletter for the rest of this season. This case is officially closed."

NATHAN THE EX-SCOREKEEPER'S PREDICTIONS

FOR
MAY 26, 1991 (CAP DAY)

1) S.Y. ANGELS (2-4) vs. BLACK MAGIC (3-3) - SPLIT

They're playing pretty even and each team can use a victory.

2) THE RIGHT ONES (3-3) vs. THE HARDWAY (2-4) - THE HARDWAY SWEEPS

THE HARDWAY seems like they're ready to take off. I see something in this team that I like.

3) ROCK N' ROLL (4-2) vs. MOE KNOWS (3-3) - MOE KNOWS SWEEPS

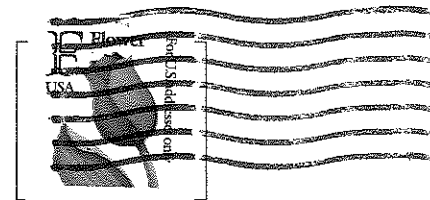

I have a feeling that Red Nessor will pitch like a human being for this game and MOE KNOWS will take advantage of it.

4) M.I.A. (3-3) vs. BOTTOM LINE (4-2) - SPLIT There can't be 3 sweeps in one week, so this matchup must result in a split.
