Liberty Blue Jays up 13-5 on season

By SJ Munoz Special to Courier-Tribune | Apr 16, 2024 Updated Apr 19, 2024

The Liberty baseball team went 2-1 in its last three games and is now 13-5 on the season as of Monday, April 16.

On April 12, the Blue Jays beat Park Hill South 3-1. Sean Kingston got the win, striking out six over six innings of work. Isaiah Hung picked up the save and went 2-3 at the plate. Christian Kuchta was 2-3 and Jack Quetschenbach had a triple and an RBI.

“In a conference game, the goals are to play solid defense and pitch it,” Liberty head coach Kirk Bragg said. “We want to scratch a few runs across and give ourselves a chance to win at the end. Sean Kingston was really good on the bump, commanding all four of his pitches and keeping PHS batters off the barrel,” he said. “He gave our defense a chance to make plays, and fortunately, we had a few big hits early in the game to settle us down. Isaiah Hung played really well, hit the ball all day and came in relief to close it down.”

The Blue Jays followed that win with a 7-1 win over St. Thomas Aquinas.

Hank Blackburn battled on the mound for six and a third innings, striking out four and allowing one run. Kaiden Postoak got the save. Nathan Spengler and Kuchta went 2-4, Carter Towns was 2-3 and Quetschenbach drove in two runs.

Aquinas is a well-coached outfit and were on a seven-game win streak, beating many good Missouri and Kansas schools, Bragg said.

“It was a quick turnaround from Friday to Saturday, but we knew we were going to have to execute our game to win. Blackburn fought to get out of the first inning, loading the bases with two outs and getting a strikeout to end it. Blackburn settled down a strong Aquinas line-up the rest of the way,” the coach said. “Offensive execution was spot on in this game. We moved runners well, scored them when we needed to and executed our system late to scratch a few more runs.”

On Monday, April 15, Liberty dropped a 4-3 game at home to St. Pius X, breaking their nine-game win streak.

Tim Teixeira recorded 10 strikeouts and Kuchta was 2-3 in the loss.

Liberty will be back in action Thursday and Friday, April 18 and 19, in the River City series against Olathe Northwest, Olathe West and Blue Valley Northwest.

Every team has it's own personality and each season has it's own rhythm. From the opening of the season it was clear you guys were a close group and you had fun playing together. Very consistent and took on all challengers as you played a tough schedule. You never really got down when up against the ropes and always kept it really positive. You had amazing success - 28 wins and UNDEFEATED in conference play to win the conference title.

Thanks for allowing me to capture moments of your season. I was able to take 84,000+ photos of Liberty Baseball this season at 17 games. I loved every minute of it. I enjoy the challenge of trying to take photos of you playing the game you love and I hope that you enjoy the photos and it provides you a chance to look back and be proud of the great season Liberty Baseball had in 2024. Thanks.
