Krew Reynolds : Quarterback : 2031 : Blanchard High School, Oklahoma

Krew Reynolds is a 6’0", 140 lbs quarterback from Blanchard High School, Oklahoma, class of 2031, playing for 13U OKC Elite in 7v7 football, known for his mental toughness and clutch performance in winning the Battle of the Best NIT Qualifier in Ft Worth, earning Offensive MVP honors, with a playing style compared to Joe Burrow, and active in multiple sports including basketball, baseball, and track, currently focusing on improving pre-snap reads and without college recruitment offers yet

• Notable 7v7 Performance: Krew led his team to victory at the Battle of the Best NIT Qualifier in Ft Worth on March 7, showcasing mental toughness by driving a late-game touchdown and throwing a game-winning two-point conversion pass as time expired to secure the championship and a bid to Nationals. In Fort Worth Texas, at the Premier Events USA Nationals, Reynolds attended QB Trainer Jeff Christensen’s “Throw it Deep” QB Camp where Reynolds was awarded MVP for his performance.

• Athletic Profile and Multi-Sport Participation: While specific physical metrics like 40-yard dash and vertical jump are not tested, Krew has a wingspan of 6 feet and hand size of 9 inches. Besides football, he competes in basketball (AAU and middle school), baseball (shortstop and pitcher), and track (200 and 400 meters) at the middle school level.

• Playing Style and Aspirations: He compares his playing style to Joe Burrow due to arm strength, intelligence, and competitive drive. Motivated by competition, Krew focuses on improving pre-snap reads during the offseason and currently has no college offers, as he just completed seventh grade.

1. The Essentials

Krew Reynolds is a quarterback expected to graduate in 2031, standing 6 feet tall and weighing 140 pounds. He plays for the 13U OKC Elite 7v7 team and attends Blanchard High School in Blanchard, OK. His social media presence includes X (@KrewReynolds2), Instagram (@krew_reynolds), and a YouTube channel (https://www.youtube.com/@krewreynolds2031)

2. Physical & Athletic Metrics

Krew has not been tested for the 40-yard dash, vertical jump, or broad jump. However, his wingspan is 6 feet with a hand size of 9 inches [3] [4].

3. The 7v7 Season & Nationals

Krew's team qualified for the National Championship by winning the "Battle of the Best" NIT Qualifier in Fort Worth on March 7. His signature moment was leading a late-game drive when down by 7 points with one minute left, culminating in a touchdown with one second remaining and a successful two-point conversion pass to win the championship as time expired. This demonstrated his mental toughness and clutch performance. While exact touchdown statistics are not available, he has recorded many touchdowns during the spring 7v7 season. His toughest opponent was the Brazos Gators, whom he approached with patience and executed deep passes during their defensive breakdowns.

4. Achievements & Accolades

Krew earned the Offensive MVP award at the Battle of the Best NIT Qualifier in Fort Worth on March 7. Reynolds attended QB Trainer Jeff Christensen's "Throw it Deep" QB Camp where Reynolds was awarded MVP for his performance. He will be entering 8th grade in Fall 2026 and thus does not yet have high school football stats. He also participates in multiple other sports including AAU and middle school basketball, traveling team baseball (as shortstop and pitcher), and middle school track events (200m and 400m).

5. Scouting "Intangibles"

Krew compares his playing style to NFL quarterback Joe Burrow, citing similarities in arm strength, intelligence, and competitive spirit. His motivation to compete nationally stems from a desire to face top competition and demonstrate the results of his hard work. During the current 7v7 offseason, he is focusing on improving his pre-snap reads. Although he has no current college offers or specific recruitment interest, this is expected given his grade level.

Article By:
Wes "Coach Buckets" White
National Scout/Recruiter PremierEventsUSA
Email: wes_white2001@yahoo.com
X: @PreWarWesley
IG: @wes_white2001
FB: Wesley White