

CYBSA Player Code of Conduct

As a participant in CYBSA, I will:

- Encourage good sportsmanship from fellow players, coaches, officials and parents
- Be a team player and support my teammates
- Be on time and attend every practice and game that I can, and notify coaches if I cannot
- Work hard to improve my skills
- Do my best to listen and learn from coaches
- Encourage my parents to be involved with my team and league in some capacity
- Congratulate the other team after each game as a demonstration of sportsmanship
- Refrain from using violence, abusive language or insulting to others
- Be generous when I win and gracious when I lose
- Accept the decisions of the officials with grace and never challenge or question calls. Leave this to the coaches to determine if they need to conference with the officials
- Conduct myself with honor and dignity
- Applaud the efforts of teammates and opponents
- Treat all equipment with respect
- I also agree that if I fail to abide by the above rules and guidelines, I will be subject to disciplinary action levied by the CYBSA Board of Directors that could include but are not limited to:
  - Verbal warning
  - Ejection from game
  - Suspension from play
  - Expulsion from CYBSA activities

Consequences for not following the Player Code of Conduct will be as follows

- If a player is ejected from a game they are to be suspended from next game. If there is a second ejection in a season the player will forfeit their spot on the team for the remainder of the season. A player can appeal their suspension to the board of directors. Being suspended for a season will result in board approval for future season participation.
- Players conducting poor sportsmanship, abusive language, physical harm, or abuse of equipment (i.e. throwing helmet, bat ect) will be subject to Director review. If Director determines that the act was erogenous enough for suspension will notify the board of directors of decision on length of suspension. Players can appeal to the board of directors.
