Just Do It vs Ultimate Warriors

Rebbe Yosef Finnucci Predicts....

These two teams split a pair of very close games during the regular season. The Ultimate Warriors remain the hottest team in the league. They have power, speed, defense, pitching and most important of all team spirit. However, the Ultimate Warriors are facing a team quite capable of stopping them dead in their tracks. Just Do It is playing like a team possessed!! This is not the same team we saw in the regular season. Since the start of the playoffs Just Do It has become virtually unbeatable. The entire season they had defense and pitching but their offense was their weak spot. Since the post season has started their offense has become their bright spot. They have FIVE player batting over .500 and are getting contributions from every member of the team. At the same time, their pitcher Abe Cohen has become nearly unstoppable.

Rebbe Yosef Finnucci Predicts: Just Do It in 5.

World Series Matchups

Ultimate Warriors (14-8) vs Just Do It (14-8)

Post Season (5-1)

Post Season (5-1)

Ultimate Warriors

First Base: Joey Tobias seems to be taking a liking to his new position. Good Hitter.

Second Base: Elliot Betesh is just starting to come around after a slow start. Very good leadoff hitter.

Short Stop: Mitchel Haddad is having one of his strongest seasons ever. A Fierce competitor, excellent hitter and a solid fielder.

Third Base: Hymie Shamah is another quiet but solid season. Top notch glove-man and a good contact hitter.

Short Center: Rickey Sutton is surprising everyone with his fielding. A big plus.

Infield Grade: Offense B
 Defense B

Right Field: Fred Nesser is an excellent defensive outfielder. Good Speed and a good arm.

Just Do It

First Base: Mitchel Gemal is a proven leader. Good man to have for the playoffs.

Second Base: Zak Mishan is having another great season. Great power hitter.

Short Stop: Ed Mishan is an excellent gloveman plus a very strong hitter. A winner.

Third Base: Leon Azar is becoming one of the top fielders in the league.

Short Center: Elliot Jemal is an excellent defensive outfielder. A great addition to this team.

Infield Grade: Offense C+
 Defense B-

Right Field: Jeff Gindi is playing fantastic. Great speed and hitting.

Center Field: Jason Cohen is playing like the Jason Cohen we used to know. Very good defensively, and stinging the ball with authority.

Warriors

Center Field: Elliot Braha continues to be one of the top players in the league. He can do everything.

Left Field: Eli Haddad is having his best season ever. Always known for his excellent defense he is hitting for average.

Out Field Grade: Offense B
 Defense B+

Pitcher: Red Nesser is having another Red Nesser type year. Which is excellent. Great pitcher, and hitter.

Catcher: Dave Gadloff is having a fine rookie season.

Battery Grade B+

Bench: Sol Dweck and Isaac Dweck give this team the best bench in the league. Sol when healthy is always a home run threat. Isaac can play any position and can hit as well.

JUST DO IT

Left Field: Joey Cohen is an aggressive player always hustling and cheering. Good slap hitter, consistent in the field.

Out Field Grade: Offense B
 Defense b

Pitcher: Abe Cohen is having another awesome season. He continues to mow down the opposition.

Catcher: David Grazi is having a solid rookie season. A great guy to have behind the plate.

Battery Grade A-

Bench: Victor Azrak, Albert Cohen, and Jack Blanco is the strength of this team. All 3 are having great offensive seasons.

Hymie Shamahs Clutch Hitting and Daring Base Running Leads Warriors over Angels 5-4

This game was without a doubt the most exciting game of the post season. It featured tremendous defense, great pitching, clutch hitting and three men were called out at the plate. Plus the winning run was scored from first base without someone even hitting the ball!! We'll get back to that later. The Ultimate Warriors struck first in their first at bat. Captain Elliot Braha doubled putting runners on 2nd and 3rd with 2 outs. The Real SY Angels decided to intentionally walk Red Nesser to pitch to Hymie Shamah. Hymie made the Angels regret that decision by blasting a 3 run triple to left center. Hymie tried for a GRAND SLAM but was thrown out at the plate leaving the Warriors with a 3-0 lead. The Real SY Angels answered back in their half of the 1st inning by scoring 2 runs. The Walkman and Steve Shalom roped back to back singles to start the inning. Two SAC flies later and one run was in the bank. Ray (Doo-Da) Dayan tripled home the other run but was called out at the plate when trying to tie it. The Warriors rightfielder Fred Nesser threw 2 runners out at the plate in this game. In the 4th inning Elliot Braha smoke a solo homeer to bring the score to 4-2. Then the turning point of the game occurred, with Hymie Shamah on 1st base there was an errant pick off attempt to catch him off base. Hymie ended up scoring all the way from 1st. This ended up being the game winning run because Ralph (El Canon) Shalom walloped a 2 run tater over the blue monster closing the gap to 5-4. But that's the way it stayed.

Final Score: Ultimate Warriors 5
 Real SY Angels 4

Hero Of The Game

Hymie Shamah

Heads Up Base Running, 3 RBIs

RED Leads Ultimate Warrior to The World Series By Tossing a 4 Hit Shutout

Red Nesser and the defense of the Ultimate Warriors never gave the Real SY Angels a glimmer of hope during this game. Every position on the Warriors made at least 1 great defensive play. Short stop Mitchel Haddad was outstanding. Eli Haddad continued to prove to everyone that he is the best defensive leftfielder in the league. Ricky Sutton, Joey (Cap) Tobias, and Elliot Betesh turned base hits into ordinary outs. The Angels pitcher Ezra (I din't want to walk Red) Ashkenazie pitched a 7 hitter, But Red was equal to the task only gave up 4 hits. The Ultimate Warriors didn't waste any of thier base hits. In The 3rd innin the Natural singled and later cscored on a 2 out 2 run dinger by Elliot Betesh. In the 5th inning Capt. Elliot Braha belted a solo homer (his third in the series) giveing the warriors a 3-0 lead. In the same inning Red doubled and scored on a single by Hymie Shamah. The only real threat the Real Sy Angels mounted was in the 6th inning. With 2 outs Meno Dweck and Sandy Zinn singled and Ed (Walkman) Azar walked bringing the tying run to the plate. But Red robbed Stve Shalom of a base hit by snaring his line drive up the middle.

Final Score: Ultimate Warriors 4
Real SY Angels 0

Hero Of The Game

Red Nesser

Great Pitching
