The Stanley Fingerut Memorial Scholarship is designed to provide funds to a student-athlete attending a college within the boundaries of USA Softball of Sacramento.

Stan was a beloved umpire who officiated college, high school and recreation softball for over 40 years in the Sacramento area. Stan proudly served as the Sacramento ASA Umpire-In-Chief from 1979-1989, the ASA Regional Umpire-In-Chief from 1989-2000, and on the ASA National Umpire Staff from 1989-2000. Stan was proud of his involvement in officiating Women's sports both basketball and softball, but softball was his favorite pastime.
