My name is Alicia and I am a visual artist who has lived on the Northside for about 15 years. My muses and inspirations are a combination of women, nature, music, and the general vibe of the environment around me. I’m always looking for new ways to grow and experiment with my art as I grow as a person.

I am a local acrylic painter born and raised in North Minneapolis. I like using bright colors and painting local icons and African American life.
Ni’Kol is a Multi-Disciplinary Artrepreneur born in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

She currently combines her love of Spoken word, photography, body movement, writing, and painting. She uses her artistry as a means of self-expression, to identify with hidden qualities of my character, to teach, cultivate community conversations, and to express my interpretation of the world around her. Her goal is to open an unexplored world, a place of curious self-expression, but also a world of new relationships, new chances for new beginnings and most importantly new stories.

Ni’Kol is a self-taught artist who has a passion for a variety of experiences. Ni’Kol uses her creativity to live unapologetic about her likes, quirks, upbringing, and expression. Ni’Kol has begun to live by her middle name. Ni’kol is an unconventional transformational Artrepeneur who facilitates groups & workshops, curates galleries and community expression. Ni’Kol hopes to change her community, to elevate her activism worldwide, and to mentor and teach others through creative expression, integrity, life coaching, and radical sensuality.

NEVER GIVE UP ON YOUR STUPID, STUPID DREAMS

HAVE A NICE POOP!

WORK HARD OR DIE TRYING, GIRL

Subversive, Sarcastic, and Snarky. It began not as a definitive response to create, but as a response to mimic their grandmother’s embroidery. In their own style, Youa & Wone brings their unique humor into this tradition form of cross-stitch art.
