KHL Travel Player Code of Conduct

When traveling as a team, each player represents Kodiak Hockey League with their gameplay, actions, and words. It is important for each player (and parent/guardian) to understand the expectations and boundaries. Failure to follow the code of conduct (on or off the ice) will result in benching of your player for a MINIMUM of one period, at the coach's discretion.

Please read and sign below:

- I will listen, respect, and follow directions from coaches at ALL times.
- I will NOT argue with coaches or referees for ANY reason at ANY time.
- I will treat my teammates with RESPECT. I will not yell at them, trash talk, or put them down in any way.
- I will treat my opponents with RESPECT. I will not argue, trash talk, taunt, or be disrespectful in any way towards them.
- I will NOT use foul, rude, inappropriate, or abusive language of any kind.
- I will encourage and lift up my teammates at all times, in any circumstance.
- I will respect my equipment and my teammates' equipment. I will not throw or hit anything with my stick, helmet, or gloves.
- I will not perform "excessive" celebrations after goal scoring.
- I will keep my attitude in check and display good sportsmanship no matter what the circumstance is. I will be the best teammate I can be.
- PARENTS/GUARDIANS: I will not bang on the glass, use profanity, yell at the referees, or shout anything negative at the players during games. I will be respectful to all game officials, participants, and parents.
