

2012-2013 CJ BOYD AWARD WINNER

JORDAN GABLE #95

Jordan Gable started playing hockey at the age of 7 years old and has played at every chance he could get since. Wearing number 95 to signify his birth year, Jordan took to the Plum Hockey roster in 6th grade, playing all the way up until his senior year. Along with a commitment to Plum Hockey, Jordan has become an 11 year veteran of the Allegheny Hockey Association. This year, Jordan was named captain of the Plum Varsity team.

Although never having the opportunity to meet CJ before his untimely passing, the aspiration to follow in the footsteps of an incredibly talented hockey player and furthermore, great person has been a goal of Jordan's. He is honored to be named the winner of the CJ Boyd Award and be a part of the great group of individuals that have been a recipient before him.

Along with the CJ Boyd Award, Jordan has received the Badger Bob Johnson Award given by the P.I.H.L. as well as two All-Star team selections. Jordan's future plans are still undecided. While there are no steady plans for hockey in the future, he expects to take part of any opportunity to get on the ice.

Jordan would like to thank his parents for their support throughout his many years of hockey experience and throughout high school. As well, Jordan would like to thank coaches Dave Stonebraker, Gary Kuhn, and Rick Monti for their multiple years of contribution of coaching him and for making his senior year a memorable and very enjoyable one. Jordan wishes all the best to the future seniors to come.
