“EDUCATION THROUGH SPORT”

RHSAA Tournament Rule/Travel Policy for 2019-2020

Senior Teams:

- Can choose to attend a maximum of three tournaments, if not hosting their own
- Can choose to attend a maximum of four tournaments, if hosting one of the four
- Can choose to attend a maximum of one tournament more than 500 km from Regina
- Can choose to attend a maximum of one tournament less than 500 km from Regina

Junior Teams:

- Can choose to attend a maximum of three tournaments, if not hosting their own
- Can choose to attend a maximum of four tournaments, if hosting one of the four
- Can choose to attend a maximum of one tournament less than 500 km from Regina

Exhibition Game Policy:

- Each RHSAA high school volleyball, soccer and basketball team (Junior or Senior) can choose to play one exhibition match (either at home or on the road) against Greenall or Lumsden or Notre Dame (non-varsity).
- If more than one match or game is played in a particular sport, it will constitute a tournament and count as an out-of-city tournament.
- Schools are responsible for scheduling the exhibition games (including booking facilities and finding suitable officials), but must e-mail all this information to the RHSAA Commissioner before the game.
- All RHSAA schools must complete any tournament and travel forms required by School Board policies.

Please Note:

- This new policy will be a one-year trial pilot (2019-2020) and will be revisited by the RHSAA Executive in early spring 2020.
