Present: Tami Zakoski, Stacy Julson, Rochelle Cummings, Sue Condon, Gale Poore, Bill Poore, Ben Smaby, Bradley Mariska, Sandy Weides, Dean Haddy, Dori Seegar, Mike Gorden, Jason Viska, Amy Julius, Karen Drill, Kari Lubbers

1. Tami called the meeting to order at 7:00 pm.
2. Rochelle made a motion to approve the minutes from January 21st. Bill seconded. Motion passed.
3. Treasurer's Report: (Rochelle) Account balance is $39,225.88. We could use more business to help fund the trailer wrap. A budget meeting will be scheduled soon-Rochelle has a list of items that we need to purchase.
4. Director's Report: Brad- The final calendar for the marching band season is almost ironed out. Props committee should get some ideas out soon so the drill writer can incorporate those ideas. Color guard training will start in April. Drum major auditions are coming up for current sophomores. There was great feedback from the winter jazz concert.
  - a. March 5th is the next band concert. 6:30 and 8:00.
  - b. March 19th is the band jubilee concert. Band booster and parent help needed to set up a picture display/booth in hopes to help promote the retention of students from 6th to 7th grade where numbers tend to drop.
  - c. April 4th is the 8th grade band parent meeting about marching band.
  - d. Pep band: 1 or 2 pep bands left. Almost 140 kids went to Owatonna to play.
  - e. Hawaii updates: Parent meeting on March 14th at 6:00 after rehearsal. Notaries will be there. Chaperone meeting to follow.
  - f. Other: Brad was invited to speak at the River Fall University music education mostly meeting. Erin and Brad will be attending the MMEA convention.
5. Uniforms: There were 14 marching band jackets that needed repairing. Also, some items were lost by the dry cleaners; they will be replacing them. Rochelle will be setting everything up soon so students can order all of their marching band essentials. Students will be receiving Hawaii shirts for the trip.

6. Fundraising Events
  - a. Mattress Sale with Soccer Booster: (Dori) Date is coming up on February 24th. Students were given fliers to hand out. Signs have also been put up around town. Still need some volunteers for that day.
  - b. Spring Plan Sale: Beth is still waiting to hear from Bachmans with information. We are planning on selling similar items as last year. Information will be coming out in an e-mail.
7. Other: Sue and Sandy brainstormed an idea of putting some of our leftover band logo items in a gift bag to sell at the jubilee for about $15. Some other ideas for fundraising were discussed-Papa Murphy's, Caribou, Chipotle.
8. Upcoming Meetings: April 24th, May 15th
9. Adjourn: Sue made a motion to adjourn. Rochelle seconded. Meeting was adjourned at 8:20pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
