

MCGSA Spectator Code of Conduct

MCGSA seeks to instill positive character-building traits in our community's youth through the demonstration of good sportsmanship, respect for others, responsibility, fairness, caring, and good citizenship. We ask that spectators attending MCGSA sponsored events help us by reflecting these character traits at games.

When attending MCGSA sponsored events, I therefore agree:

- I will be a positive role model for my child and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy, and by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, officials and spectators at every game, practice or other sporting event.
- I will not engage in any kind of unsportsmanlike conduct with any official, coach, player, or parent such as booing, taunting, or using profane language or gestures, etc.
- I will not encourage any behaviors or practices that would endanger the health and wellbeing of the athletes.
- I will teach my child to play by the spirit of the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.
- I will demand that my child treat other players, coaches, officials, and spectators with respect regardless of race, sex, or ability.
- I will never ridicule or yell at my child or other participant for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- I will respect the officials and their authority during games and will never question, discuss, or confront coaches or referees at the game field, and will take time to speak with coaches at an agreed upon time and place.
- I will refrain from coaching my child or other players during games and practices unless I am one of the official coaches of the team.
- I will not enter the dugout before, during, or after a game (unless in the role of "dugout parent" in the lower leagues).
- I will not enter the field of play before, during, or after a game (unless signaled to in the event of a serious injury).
- I will inform the coach of any physical disability or ailment that may affect the safety of my child or the safety of others.
- I will not bring alcohol into the park without following The City of Brookhaven's Alcohol Use Policy: use of alcohol on The City of Brookhaven owned and operated property is permitted by special permit only.

I also agree that if I fail to abide by the aforementioned rules and guidelines, I will be subject to disciplinary action that could include, but is not limited to, the following:

Verbal warning by official, head coach, and/or member of league organization

Written warning

Spectator game suspension with written documentation of incident

Spectator season suspension
